THE PRINCETON SEMINARY CATALOGUE

(USPS 372-490)

VOLUME VIII, NUMBER 1 (NEW SERIES)

JULY 1984

The catalogue is the basic issue of THE PRINCETON SEMINARY CATALOGUE published each year by Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey. Supplements are published in the Fall, Winter, and Spring in the form of specific course schedules.

Second class postage paid at Princeton, New Jersey, 08542

The annual catalogue is an account of the academic year 1983-1984 and an announcement of the proposed program for the years 1984-1986. The projected program is subject to change and is in no way binding upon the Seminary. Tuition and fees listed herein cover the 1984-1985 academic year only and are subject to change in subsequent years without notice.

Princeton Theological Seminary does not discriminate because of race, color, sex, or age, and complies with the regulation for the handicapped Section 504.

VISITING THE CAMPUS

PROSPECTIVE students are encouraged to visit the Seminary campus at their convenience. Arrangements should be made in advance with the Director of Student Relations or the Director of Admissions. Opportunities will be provided during such visits for personal interviews with members of the Seminary staff, attendance at classes, and informal discussion with Seminary students. Meals and lodging can be provided if a visiting prospective student so desires.

Such visits are not invariably a part of the admissions procedure, but they have proved helpful to both students and admissions personnel in evaluating the student's needs and interests in Seminary education. If a prospective visitor has applied for admission to Princeton Seminary, this should be indicated in correspondence about a proposed visit. Because the spring months of March, April, and May are unusually busy with applications for admission, a prospective student should plan his or her visit for other times of the year, when the chances are better for a relaxed and profitable stay.

DAVID L. CRAWFORD
Director of Student Relations

GENERAL INFORMATION

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

THE purpose of Princeton Theological Seminary is to prepare men and women for able and faithful ministry in the Christian church and in present-day society. Committed to a learned ministry for church and society, the Seminary welcomes qualified students without regard to denomination, race, physical handicap, or sex. Through regular chapel worship and other campus functions, the Seminary seeks to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of students, and through classroom and other academic activities to confront them in critical discussions about the Bible and Christian doctrine with probing questions about faith and life in today's world. The Seminary has one of the outstanding theological libraries in the world, a distinguished and experienced faculty, and a large campus of more than 20 buildings occupying an area of 30 acres in the center of the Princeton community. In the midst of wide diversity, with students of different academic and religious backgrounds, the Seminary encourages a spirit of Christian community on campus so that each individual may be heard, supported, and accepted, and all together be united in a common loyalty to Jesus Christ and his church.

HISTORY

Princeton Theological Seminary was established in 1812 by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to prepare pastors who, in the language of the day, "with various endowments, suiting them to different stations in the church of Christ, may all possess a portion of the spirit of the primitive propagators of the Gospel." The first Presbyterian school for pastors, Princeton was for many years known simply as "The Theological Seminary."

The Seminary and the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) are independent institutions, although the College had been established in 1746 primarily to educate Presbyterian and other ministers. The early decades of the nineteenth century ushered in a time of tremendous geographical expansion, so that churches and denominations were forced to prepare an increasing number of ministers for the new frontiers. Seminaries such as Princeton began to specialize in biblical and doctrinal subjects while colleges and universities moved more toward the liberal arts and sciences.

Relations between Princeton Seminary and Princeton University have always been cordial and reciprocal. Today, for example, Seminary students enjoy the privileges of Firestone Library at the University and may take certain graduate and upper-division undergraduate University courses.

The first professors at Princeton Theological Seminary were Archibald Alexander, Samuel Miller, and Charles Hodge, a distinguished trio of great learning whose influence on church life and theological thinking persisted for more than a century. This early tradition of scholarship in the service of the Christian church became a trademark of Princeton Seminary and found expression in the leadership of the Seminary, in the highly qualified faculty, and in the steady stream of able graduates and alumni.

The Seminary has been served by a remarkable succession of eminent Presidents. Francis Landey Patton (1902-1913) came to the Seminary after serving as President of Princeton University. J. Ross Stevenson (1914-1936) guided the Seminary through some turbulent years and expanded the institution's vision and program. John A. Mackay (1936-1959) strengthened the faculty, enlarged the campus, and created a new ecumenical era for theological education. James I. McCord (1959-1983), whose presidency saw the institution of the first center of continuing education at a theological seminary, the establishment of full endowment for twenty-six faculty chairs, and the construction or renovation of major campus residences and academic facilities, has given leadership to both the national and world church through denominational and ecumenical councils.

Thomas W. Gillespie became the Seminary's fifth president in 1983. A native Californian, he previously served pastorates in Garden Grove and Burlingame, and taught as an adjunct professor at several seminaries in that state. He has served the Presbyterian Church through leadership positions on its boards and agencies and was a delegate to the Consultation on Church Union. He brings to the Seminary the experience of a pastor-scholar and a leader in interdenominational dialogue.

Affiliated from the beginning with the Presbyterian Church and the wider Reformed tradition, Princeton Theological Seminary is today a denominational school with an ecumenical, interdenominational, and worldwide constituency. This is reflected in the faculty, in the curriculum of studies, and in the student body.

ALUMNI AND SEMINARIANS

As one of the oldest seminaries in the country, Princeton has graduated more than 17,000 alumni of which nearly one-half of that number are still living. One out of every ten graduates in every decade of the Seminary's history has served outside the United States. The Alumni Association is a well-organized and loyal group, proud of the Seminary's history and united in their commitment to Christ and his church.

In recent years, seminarians have come from nearly 400 colleges and universities as well as from 100 other seminaries and from 90 denominations, including nearly all Protestant varieties as well as Roman and Eastern Orthodox Catholic Churches. While the flow of Seminary graduates as missionaries to other countries has been slowed somewhat because of the changed world situation, the traffic continues in the other direction with more than 70 international students from other lands registered at the Seminary in various degree programs.

With all the changes that history brings, Princeton Seminary is still committed to the expressed purpose of its original founders who declared that "piety of heart" must be combined with "solid learning" because, as they put it, "religion without learning or learning without religion in the ministers of the Gospel must ultimately prove injurious to the church."

THE SEMINARY AND THE COMMUNITY

Princeton is an academic, research, and residential community midway between New York and Philadelphia. Already on the map in colonial times, history was made here during the Revolution with George Washington and the Battle of Princeton. Aaron Burr, Jonathan Edwards, and Grover Cleveland lie buried in the Princeton cemetery. Woodrow Wilson graduated from the University to the White House, and Albert Einstein strolled back and forth from his home on Mercer Street, just below the Seminary, to his office at the Institute for Advanced Study.

With the passing of the years, the town has changed, but not much. The University still stands at the center of the community, but several other educational institutions, including the Seminary, have put down their roots in this congenial place. Princeton maintains its quiet residential atmosphere with a dozen or more national research laboratories ringing in its outer edges.

Princeton is a small town but rich in educational and cultural resources, with libraries, museums, churches, theaters, concerts, athletic events, and a continuous program of lectures on the arts and sciences open to both town and gown. Princetonians do not complain that there is nothing to do.

CAMPUS

The Seminary campus, enlarged in 1943 by the acquisition of land and buildings in the Stockton Street complex, now covers more than thirty acres. The plant consists of an administration building, three classroom buildings, a library building, a chapel, a campus center building, four dormitories, three apartment houses, a gymnasium and athletic field, and a corporation yard. The Seminary also owns a considerable number of houses which are used as homes by members of the Faculty.

With reference to the map on page 2, most of the following buildings easily may be located.

MILLER CHAPEL. The chapel, built in 1834 by Charles Steadman, a local architect and builder of repute, was named for Samuel Miller, the second professor at the Seminary. Originally located beside Alexander Hall, it was moved in 1933 toward the center of the campus. Through its doors have passed vast numbers of students for prayer and praise, for communion and meditation, for reflection and inspiration, for preaching and instruction. The anthems, the hymns, the surging tones of the organ continue to roll daily across the campus when the Seminary is in session.

THE ROBERT E. SPEER LIBRARY. Erected in 1957 and named for the great missionary statesman, Robert E. Speer, a member of the class of 1933, this structure incorporates the contents of the former Lenox Reference and Circulating Libraries in a superb center for research and learning. In addition to a renowned theological collection, the building provides classrooms, study rooms, carrels, a meeting room for the Faculty and Board of Trustees, a reading room, and lounges. A description of the resources and book collections will be found on page 132.

STUART HALL. The architect of Stuart Hall could have had in mind the hymn "A Mighty Fortress" when he designed the massive and imposing walls and turrets. Constructed in 1876, a gift of Robert L. and Alexander Stuart of New York City, its lecture rooms have been the forum for the sharing of knowledge and wisdom between professor and student. In recent years a speech and communication studio was created on the third floor. The Theological Book Agency, the Women's Center, and the Admissions Office are located in the basement.

The Robert E. Speer Library

ALEXANDER HALL. Originally called the "Old Seminary" and later renamed for Archibald Alexander, the first professor, who taught and worked within its walls until 1851, the building initially housed students, the library, the chapel, classrooms, and a refectory. Constructed in 1815 and still architecturally the heart of the campus, it was extensively renovated in the summer of 1978 and is now a dormitory consisting largely of single rooms. The bell in the cupola summons the campus community to classes, to worship, to meals, and to meetings.

BROWN HALL. The gift of Mrs. George Brown of Baltimore, this structure was opened in 1865 as a men's dormitory. A host of students have lived here, coming from urban and rural areas, East and West coasts, and six continents. The building was thoroughly renovated in the summer of 1979 to provide single-room accommodations for about 80 men and women students.

HODGE HALL. Completed in 1893, this building was named for the Seminary's distinguished third professor, Charles Hodge. The L-shaped plan permits each room to receive sunlight during some part of each day. Originally a dormitory for men, it was later renovated to house women and married couples as well. The first floor contains administrative offices, and in the basement are printing facilities and the mailroom. The upper three floors were remodeled in the summer of 1980, providing facilities for about 70 students in single rooms and three-room suites.

TENNENT HALL. One of several buildings purchased in 1943 to provide a much needed center for the School of Christian Education, Tennent Hall is named for William Tennent, who in 1726 founded the Log College, forerunner of Princeton University. In addition, there is here perpetuated the name of the Tennent College of Christian Education of Philadelphia, which assigned its assets in trust to the Seminary for the conduct of instruction in the field of Christian education on the graduate level. The first dormitory for women on the Seminary campus, Tennent Hall was thoroughly renovated in the summer of 1982 to house the Christian Education offices, several Faculty studies, and two floors of apartments for married students.

ROBERTS HALL. This complex of three wings, acquired in 1943 and totally renovated in the summer of 1983, contains apartments of varying size to accommodate married students who prefer to live within walking distance of the main campus of the Seminary. It has been rededicated in honor of Edward Howell Roberts, Dean and Professor of Preaching, who was an inspiration to ministerial candidates for over two decades.

PAYNE HALL. This hall for the housing of missionaries on furlough was given in 1922 by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin N. Payne of Titusville, Pennsylvania. It contains fully furnished apartments for twelve families. In assigning apartments, preference is given to missionaries and fraternal workers who propose taking a regular course of study in the Seminary.

THE WHITELEY GYMNASIUM. The gymnasium, purchased as a part of the Stockton Street complex, is named for Mrs. George H. Whiteley of York, Pennsylvania, who bequeathed a sum of money for a gymnasium originally designed to be part of a student center building. Facilities include courts for basketball, squash, handball, and racquetball. The Princeton chapter of Recording for the Blind, Inc., is housed on the lower level.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING. This building, located in the center of the campus, was originally constructed as a refectory. Converted into a gymnasium in 1910, an addition in 1981 enabled the Seminary to bring under one roof most of the administrative offices.

JOHN ALEXANDER MACKAY CAMPUS CENTER. Completed in 1952, the Campus Center provides a place for many Seminary activities. Facilities which had been scattered in a number of eating clubs were replaced by one dining center. The building contains two dining rooms and a kitchen, a large auditorium with stage, lounges, meeting rooms, Faculty offices, and guest accommodations. Dedicated to the memory and witness of John Alexander Mackay, the third President of the Seminary, the building envisions "the creation on this campus of a Christian community whose members, drawn from diverse lands and churches, shall serve in all the world the one church which is Christ's body."

CHARLOTTE RACHEL WILSON APARTMENTS. On U.S. Route 1, about two miles south of the campus as the crow flies, stand the Charlotte Rachel Wilson Apartments, named in memory of the mother of a beloved friend of the Seminary, Mrs. Charlotte T. Newcombe. Her generous legacy lifted the mortgage from this very useful property which includes 25 two-story buildings, each containing eight apartments, some with one bedroom and others with two. They are available to married students with or without children. An attended outdoor pool and other recreational facilities are on the grounds.

CHARLOTTE NEWCOMBE CENTER. Completed in the summer of 1982, the Charlotte Newcombe Center is located on the grounds of the Seminary's apartment complex. The building contains a large study section, with carrels for individual work, and an enclosed typing area. Other facilities include an informal lounge, a multi-purpose social room, and a small service kitchen.

CARRIAGE HOUSE. This building, situated a few hundred feet from Speer Library, was purchased by the Seminary in 1965. It contains two seminar rooms and several Faculty offices.

ERDMAN HALL. In memory of Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Erdman, alumni and friends raised more than a million dollars to erect a dormitory, dedicated in 1971, on the site of their home, thus remembering their gracious hospitality. Dr. Erdman was a member of the class of 1891 and a member of the Faculty from 1905 to 1936. One section of the building is a dormitory for men and women; the other section provides residential quarters for the Center of Continuing Education.

ADAMS HOUSE. Located across Library Place from Speer Library, the building that was once a private residence and now houses the Center of Continuing Education has been named in memory of Dean Arthur M. Adams. Dean Adams was instrumental in the founding of the Center and supervised its program. Over 5,000 persons, both clergy and lay, participate here annually.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

APPLICATION

A student desiring to enter the Seminary must file a formal application, a copy of which will be sent upon request. A non-refundable fee of $25.00 is required both of new applicants and of alumni seeking admission to advanced programs. Princeton Seminary admits qualified men and women students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin, irrespective of physical handicap.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF DIVINITY

The program of study set forth for the Master of Divinity degree is designed to prepare students for the parish ministry, for graduate study in theology and related disciplines, for various types of chaplaincy, for mission work at home and abroad, and for other forms of church vocation. The curriculum is planned to provide the maximum of flexibility and independence consonant with a broad theological foundation.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

It is recommended that the candidate's baccalaureate preparation include at least sixty semester hours, or twenty semester courses, in such liberal arts studies as English, philosophy, literature, history, and ancient and modern languages, together with some work in the natural and human sciences, especially psychology and sociology.

Among items specified on the application form, an applicant for the M.Div. program must furnish a letter of evaluation and endorsement from the minister or governing body of the church with which he or she is affiliated, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for seminary study. It is expected that applicants shall be certified as ministerial candidates by the responsible governing body of their denomination, or are making normal progress toward such certification. In addition, the candidate must supply a transcript of all college or university work pursued to date. When possible, this is to be supplemented by the Confidential Report of Academic Standing. If an applicant has not yet completed the baccalaureate program and is accepted for admission to the Seminary, a supplementary transcript must be provided indicating the awarding of a baccalaureate degree by an approved college or university. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this supplementary record has been received.

Whenever feasible, an interview with a member of the Seminary staff is recommended. Such an interview can be arranged through the office of the Director of Admissions.

It is expected that applications for the M.Div. program be filed with the Director of Admissions by March 1 for the following academic year. Applications submitted after March 1 will be considered only if space is available.

Applications which are completed by December 1 will be reviewed promptly by the Admissions Committee and such applicants may receive notice of admission in December. Priority in the assignment of housing will be given on the basis of early application and admission. Admissions are also made in February and March and, if space is available, at regular intervals thereafter.

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM

The components of the Master of Divinity program are three in number:

1. Twenty-four courses and six practicums, ordinarily distributed over six semesters of full-time resident study. Certain of the courses and practicums are prescribed, and the remainder are to be drawn from available electives or special courses. In some instances required courses and practicums may be waived by examination or other means. Where a candidate is permitted to apply credits earned in another seminary toward the Princeton M.Div. requirements, the equivalent of two full years of study (sixteen courses and four practicums), including in all cases the final year, must be spent at Princeton Seminary. The program of every candidate must include at least two semesters of full-time work.

2. A program of Senior studies in some area of the curriculum. This program, pursued under the direction of a Faculty adviser, shall embrace from three to five courses beyond the general distribution requirement and may, at the option of qualified students, involve the preparation of a thesis.

3. The completion of an approved program of field education, the nature of which is elaborated on page 129 of this catalogue.

PROGRAM SEQUENCE

Instruction in the Seminary is broadly organized under four academic departments, and portions of the curricular requirements are assigned to each of these departments.

BIBLICAL STUDIES

The student is required to elect six courses in this department, distributing the courses as follows:

(a) Courses OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies, and NT01, Orientation to New Testament Studies. If a student has received prior seminary-level instruction in the subject matter covered by either or both of these classes, the requirement or requirements may be waived by the Office of Professional Studies.

(b) Four additional courses, not all in the same Testament, drawn from those numbered OT11 or NT11 and above. If, however, a student successfully completes course OT04 or NT04, he or she will receive an allowance of one course toward the distribution requirement for each such course completed, provided he or she also includes among the four departmental courses another course in the Testament concerned.

Students entering as candidates for the Master of Divinity degree who have studied Greek may take a placement examination in Greek to demonstrate their ability to carry on exegetical work in New Testament. This examination will seek to determine (a) the candidate's ability to decline nouns, adjectives, and participles and to conjugate and parse (analyze) verbs; (b) his or her acquaintance with fundamental syntactical constructions (such as those dealt with in J. G. Machen's New Testament Greek for Beginners, Macmillan Company); and (c) his or her proficiency in translating simple Greek prose. At the examination the student will have a choice between a passage from Xenophon's Anabasis, Book I, and one from the Gospel of Mark.

HISTORY

The student is required to elect four courses in this department, distributing the courses as follows:

(a) In the division of Church History, both CH01, History of Christianity I, and CH02, History of Christianity II. If a student's transcript indicates prior seminary-level instruction in the subject matter covered by either or both of these courses, the requirement or requirements may be waived by the Director of Professional Studies.

(b) Two other courses in the department, at least one of which shall be from History of Religions, Church and Society, or Ecumenics.

THEOLOGY

The student is required to elect four courses in this department, distributing the courses as follows:

(a) Course TH01, Introduction to Theology. If a student's transcript indicates prior seminary-level instruction in the subject matter covered by this course, the Office of Professional Studies may approve the substitution of another course in Doctrinal Theology for this portion of the requirement. Course TH01 must be completed by the middle of the second year of study.

(b) A course dealing with a major theologian or basic Christian doctrine, selected from a currently-approved list. The student is, of course, free to elect other classes from this group. Approved courses listed in this catalogue (with some titles summarized) are:

ET16	Dietrich Bonhoeffer
HD15	Augustine
HD21	Luther
HD22	Calvin's Institutes
PH21	Austin Farrer
TH11	Doctrine of God
TH12	Christology
TH13	Person and Work of the Spirit
TH14	Incarnation and Wholeness
TH15	Providence and Evil
TH24	Ministry, Word, and Sacrament
TH36	Jonathan Edwards
TH37	Theology of Schleiermacher
TH40	Theology of Karl Barth
TH41	Theology of Tillich

(c) A course in Philosophy or Christian Ethics.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

The student is required to include in his or her program three courses and six practicums drawn from the offerings available in this department. The courses must be selected from at least two of the departmental divisions. Beyond this stipulation, the distribution of work shall embrace:

(a) Practicum SP01, Fundamentals of Expression, unless this requirement is waived by the passing of a placement examination. Practicum SP02 also must be taken by students who are required to pursue the Preaching sequence outlined below.

(b) Course PR01, Introduction to Preaching, followed by practicum PR02. Course PR01 must be completed by the middle of the second year of study; practicum PR02, by the end of the second year. This portion of the requirement may be waived only by written approval of the Director of Professional Studies and upon a review of the student's vocational plans and the policies of his or her denomination.

(c) For students in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), one practicum in church polity. Arrangements may be made through the coordinator of polity practicums for appropriate offerings for students of certain other denominations, in order that they may meet their specific polity requirements.

In certain instances it is possible, upon petition to the Office of Professional Studies, to substitute a course for a practicum. Such substitution is permissible where the course includes a significant element of student participation and practice in the area covered by the practicum. Students who pursue this option may be certified for graduation with fewer than six practicums, provided the total number of courses in their program is correspondingly increased beyond twenty-four.

PART-TIME STUDY AND ACCELERATION

The program of study leading to the M.Div. degree is designed to be completed in six semesters of full-time study, exclusive of any period that may be devoted to an internship.

In a few instances, usually occasioned by ill-health or extraordinary family circumstances, a portion of the work may be conducted on a part-time basis, and the time required to finish the degree is extended beyond three years. An M.Div. candidate should not expect, however, to pursue any substantial portion of the curriculum by part-time study. The foundational courses, and many others that are essential for a balanced and integrated program, meet through the week, and appropriate substitutes are ordinarily unavailable. The Seminary provides no assurance that a student who is able to attend class only on particular days, or for a restricted number of periods each day, will have access to the courses he or she needs to complete the graduation requirements.

In addition to the regular academic semesters, the Seminary provides a summer session that is available to M.Div. candidates under certain defined conditions. Such candidates may draw upon the offerings of the summer session for the following reasons: (a) To pursue the intensive courses in Greek and Hebrew language and exegesis, thus laying a strong foundation for work in all of the theological disciplines. (b) To rectify deficiencies from the preceding year or to lighten their projected load for the year ahead. (c) To enrich their theological awareness beyond the minimum requirements for graduation. Summer courses must be selected with particular care, since several of these offerings may be applied toward the graduation requirements in a restricted way, and others carry no credit at all toward those requirements.

As a general rule, credits earned during the summer session and extra credits earned during regular terms may not be used to reduce the six semesters of resident study prescribed for the degree. Exceptions to this rule are granted only under extraordinary circumstances, and on the basis of a written petition to the Committee on Professional Studies.

A candidate contemplating part-time study should be aware of the limitations that such status imposes on eligibility for financial aid, student housing, and loan deferment. The Seminary cannot certify to the Immigration and Naturalization Service an international student who is pursuing his or her work on a part-time basis.

ACCELERATED PROGRAM IN MINISTRY AND SOCIAL WORK

A limited number of students can be accepted each year for an accelerated program leading to the Master of Divinity degree from the Seminary and the Master of Social Work degree from Rutgers University. This program is designed for students who expect to enter forms of ministry requiring competence both in the disciplines of theology and in those associated with social work.

The M.Div. requirements are completed as usual in the first three years. During the third year up to two courses taken at Rutgers University may be credited toward the Seminary degree. Immediately following the granting of the M.Div. degree, the student enters the summer session at the Graduate School of Social Work with advanced standing and may complete all requirements for the M.S.W. by June of the fourth academic year.

Applications for this program should be filed with the Director of Admissions of the Seminary by May 1 of the second year of theological study. A special bulletin covering the requirements of this program is available upon request.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The program of study leading to the degree of Master of Arts in Christian education is designed as preparation for service in various professional capacities, particularly that of director of Christian education or religious education coordinator in the parish. This curriculum is approved by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton for the professional training of religious educators.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

It is recommended that the candidate's baccalaureate preparation include at least sixty semester hours, or twenty semester courses, in such liberal arts studies as English, philosophy, literature, history, and ancient and modern languages, together with some work in the natural and human sciences, especially psychology and sociology.

Among items specified on the application form, an applicant for the M.A. program must furnish a letter of evaluation and endorsement from the minister or governing body of the church with which he or she is affiliated, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for seminary study. In addition, the candidate must supply a transcript of all college or university work pursued to date. When possible, this is to be supplemented by the Confidential Report of Academic Standing. If an applicant has not yet completed the baccalaureate program and is accepted for admission to the Seminary, a supplementary transcript must be provided indicating the awarding of a baccalaureate degree by an approved college or university. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this supplementary record has been received.

Whenever feasible, an interview with a member of the Seminary staff is recommended. Such an interview can be arranged through the office of the Director of Admissions.

It is expected that applications for the M.A. program be filed with the Director of Admissions by March 1 for the following academic year. Applications submitted after March 1 will be considered only if space is available.

Applications which are completed by December 1 will be reviewed promptly by the Admissions Committee and such applicants may receive notice of admission in December. Priority in the assignment of housing will be given on the basis of early application and admission. Admissions are also made in February and March and, if space is available, at regular intervals thereafter.

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAM

The components of the Master of Arts program in Christian education are three in number:

1. Sixteen courses and four practicums distributed over four semesters of study. Certain of the courses and practicums are prescribed, and the remainder are to be drawn from available electives or special courses. Where the candidate is permitted to apply credits earned elsewhere toward the Princeton M.A. requirements, the final year of study (eight courses and two practicums) must in all cases be spent at Princeton Seminary.

2. A professional examination over the basic material in Christian education and in the other areas of the Seminary program. The preparation for this examination should be done partly through formal courses and partly through independent reading. At the beginning of the first year the student will receive a syllabus for the examination, indicating the essential areas to be covered and the bibliography to be employed. The professional examination will be given at the end of the first semester of the final year of study.

3. The completion of an approved program of field education, the nature of which is elaborated on page 131 of this catalogue.

PROGRAM SEQUENCE

Instruction in the Seminary is broadly organized under four academic departments, and portions of the curricular requirements are assigned to each of these departments.

BIBLICAL STUDIES

Two specific courses in this department are normally required of all students and should be taken during the first year in the program:

OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies

NT01, Orientation to New Testament Studies

If a student has received adequate seminary-level instruction in the subject matter covered by either or both of these courses, the Office of Professional Studies may authorize the substitution of more advanced work in the departmental division or divisions concerned.

HISTORY

The student is required to elect two courses in this department, one of which shall be in the division of Church History and one in another of the divisions. The course in Church History shall be either CH01, History of Christianity I, or CH02, History of Christianity II, unless advanced placement is authorized by the Office of Professional Studies on the basis of adequate seminary-level instruction in the history of the church.

THEOLOGY

The student is required to elect two courses in this department, one of which shall be in the division of Doctrinal Theology and one in another of the divisions. The course in Doctrinal Theology shall be TH01, Introduction to Theology, unless advanced placement is authorized by the Office of Professional Studies on the basis of adequate seminary-level instruction in the subject matter of the course.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

The student is required to include in his or her program six courses and four practicums from the offerings of this department. The work shall be distributed as follows:

- (a) Course ED01, Introduction to Christian Education.
- (b) One course from the following group—
 - ED11 Philosophy of Education*
 - ED13 History of Education*
 - ED15 Educational Psychology*
 - ED16 Developmental Psychology*
 - ED45 Sociocultural Foundations of Education*
- (c) One course from the following group—
 - ED41 Christian Education of Adults*
 - ED42 Christian Education of Youth*
 - ED43 Christian Education of Children*
- (d) One course from the following group—
 - ED30 Curriculum and Method in Christian Education*
 - ED31 Administration of Christian Education*
 - ED32 Building Leadership in the Congregation*
- (e) Two courses from some other division or divisions of the Department of Practical Theology.
- (f) Practicum SP01, Fundamentals of Expression, unless this requirement is waived by the passing of a placement examination.
- (g) For students in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), one practicum in church polity. Arrangements may be made through the coordinator of polity practicums for appropriate offerings for students of certain other denominations, in order that they meet their specific polity requirements.
- (h) Two additional practicums of the student's choice.

Candidates in the Diocese of Trenton program are required, in addition, to take either course ED03, Perspectives in Roman Catholic Religious Education, or course ED04, Roman Catholic Religious Education Since Vatican II.

POST-M.DIV. PROGRAM

Candidates who hold the M.Div. degree ordinarily can complete the M.A. in Christian education requirements in one additional year of full-time study. In each case the specific program components will be determined in terms of the student's previous education and experience.

MASTER OF ARTS IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The program leading to the degree of Master of Arts in theological studies is designed to provide graduate education for persons currently engaged professionally in the teaching ministry of the church or for persons who have an attested expectation of such engagement. In no way a step to or substitute for the doctorate, it is available to a limited number of candidates for whom such a two-year course is the normal qualification for appointment or advancement as a professional theological educator.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Master of Arts in theological studies (M.A.), together with the necessary supporting documents, must be filed with the Director of Admissions by March 1 for the following academic year. Applicants from overseas should endeavor to complete their files by February 1, in order that adequate time may be available for securing necessary travel papers. The Admissions Committee holds meetings periodically throughout the academic year, and applicants are notified of the committee's action as soon as practicable after a decision has been reached. Those who seek admission to this program will find it to their advantage to make application at an early date, since the number of positions available is closely limited.

An applicant for the M.A. degree in theological studies is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. Transcripts of all college, university, and seminary work pursued to date. In order to qualify for consideration the applicant must hold the degree of Bachelor of Arts, or its formal educational equivalent, from an approved institution, and either—

The degree of Master of Arts in Christian education or in one of the humanities or social sciences from an approved graduate institution, or

The degree of Master of Divinity, or its formal theological equivalent, from an approved seminary.

In the event one of the latter programs is in progress at the time of application, a supplementary transcript must be provided before matriculation, attesting to a satisfactory completion of that work.

b. A statement describing the professional educational work in which the applicant presently is engaged, or in which he or she has promise of being engaged, and indicating how the M.A. in theological studies is appropriate to this activity. Since in many educational systems the doctorate represents the normal qualification for appointment or advancement, it usually will be necessary to include a statement from the employing organization, or prospective employer, stating that the M.A. is considered acceptable for this purpose.

c. A proposal, based upon the current catalogue of the Seminary, outlining a possible program of courses related to the candidate's area of specialization that would meet his or her educational objectives. Although this proposal will not be considered as final and binding upon the parties, it is carefully reviewed by a committee of the Faculty with a view to ascertaining whether the needs of the applicant can be met within the resources of the Seminary.

Applicants who are admitted to the program must give to the Director of Admissions written notice of their decision to accept admission, according to deadlines provided by the Director.

PROGRAM

The studies of a candidate for the M.A. degree in theological studies are pursued under the general supervision of the Director of Professional Studies and under the immediate guidance of a Faculty adviser appointed by the Director. Where the resources of the Seminary are especially extensive, work may be conducted in a single field of inquiry. In most instances, however, the candidate will distribute his or her courses over two or even three appropriately related areas. The program is designed to find focus in the classical disciplines of theological inquiry, where attention can be directed to theoretical foundations, basic methodology, historical perspectives, and contemporary trends. The Seminary discourages applications from persons who desire work that is primarily clinical or laboratory in nature.

Satisfactory completion of sixteen courses is required for the M.A. degree in theological studies. If the candidate elects, in consultation with his or her Faculty adviser, to submit a thesis in partial fulfillment of the requirement, it shall be assigned two courses of academic credit. The candidate who does not prepare a thesis must instead pursue one or two courses which will require the writing of an essay or essays, giving evidence of ability to engage in research and present the results in an acceptable literary and academic form.

The candidate must spend at least four semesters in residence in order to qualify for the degree. Where work is conducted on a part-time basis, the residence period will be proportionately increased. A program may not extend over more than eight consecutive semesters, or eight semesters in total, without the approval of the Director of Professional Studies.

Work pursued in other graduate programs or schools of theology may not be used to reduce the course or residence requirement at Princeton Seminary. Persons who initially apply for Ph.D. candidacy in the Seminary ordinarily will not be considered for the M.A. degree in theological studies.

THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF THEOLOGY

The program of studies for the degree of Master of Theology is designed for students who wish to improve or deepen their preparation for the ministry beyond the level reached by their M.Div. course, or who desire to acquire a preparation for specialized ministries of the church.

Special arrangements also have been made with the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton to meet the needs of personnel related to this jurisdiction.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.), together with the necessary supporting documents, must be filed with the Director of Admissions by May 1 for the following academic year. Applications submitted after May 1 will be considered if space is available. The Admissions Committee holds meetings periodically throughout the year to consider those applications for which the files of credentials are complete. Each applicant will be notified of the committee's action as soon as practicable after a decision has been reached. Those who seek admission to this program will find it to their advantage to make application at an early date, since the number of positions available in some fields is necessarily limited.

An applicant for the Th.M. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, a letter from the appropriate official of the applicant's endorsing governing body, stating that he or she is in good and regular standing with the denomination, together with three additional letters of reference from persons in a position to assess his or her qualifications for graduate theological study. In addition, the applicant must submit a transcript of all college and seminary work pursued to date. If accepted, evidence must be provided to show that the applicant has been awarded the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity, or their equivalents, from approved institutions. Matriculation in the Seminary cannot be effected until this record has been received.

Applicants wishing to receive the Th.M. degree in the Department of Biblical Studies must have a knowledge of Greek and Hebrew.

Applicants who receive notice of admission prior to February 15 must indicate to the Director by March 15 whether or not they will accept admission to the Seminary. Applicants receiving notification after February 15 must indicate their decision within thirty days.

PROGRAM

Eight courses are required for the Th.M. degree. If the candidate wishes to present a thesis (which carries the credit of two courses), six courses are required in addition to the thesis. These courses ordinarily must be taken in the area of the department in which the candidate is specializing. However, the student may be permitted to take courses in other areas of the department, or in areas of other departments, if in the judgment of his or her Faculty adviser these courses are related to the student's field of concentration.

The candidate who seeks the degree without the presentation of a thesis must pursue one or two courses which will require the writing of an essay or essays, which give evidence of ability to engage in research and present his or her investigation in an acceptable literary and academic form.

Each candidate will be assigned an adviser by the Office of Professional Studies. Candidates will arrange their programs of study in consultation with their advisers, and in accordance with the programs developed for their chosen areas of study. As a rule, introductory level courses may not be chosen for credit toward the Th.M. degree. In special cases, the student's adviser may give permission for selecting such courses, provided the instructor will give special assignments in accordance with the requirements for the Th.M. degree.

When a thesis is presented in partial fulfillment of degree requirements, it must be submitted to the professor concerned by May 1. It must have special merit, be approved by the adviser-professor, and be acceptable to the Director of Professional Studies.

The candidate must spend a minimum of one year in residence and should, within that period, normally complete both his or her courses and the thesis (where applicable). The schedule of courses in several program areas is so arranged, however, that candidates may attend class one day each week for four semesters in succession, and receive the degree in two years. Class days may vary from semester to semester. If an extension of time is desired, the candidate must make petition to the Director of Professional Studies. Extensions ordinarily are granted for one or two semesters at a time.

Candidates must attain an average of B – (B minus) or better in order to qualify for the Th.M. degree.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

The program of studies for the degree of Doctor of Ministry is designed for men and women who wish to pursue, at an advanced level, education for ministerial practice. It is oriented not to teaching and research, although aspects of these activities are essential to any form of effective ministry, but to the integration of theological and behavioral understandings in the context of continuing responsible engagement in service. Accordingly, the candidate is expected to be engaged in a recognized form of full-time ministerial practice for the duration of the program.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.), together with the necessary supporting documents, should be filed with the Director of D.Min. Studies not later than March 15 for the following academic year and the summer thereafter. Applicants are informed of the decision of the Admissions Committee on or about the first of May.

An applicant for the D.Min. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. After admission and before matriculation an endorsement from his or her session, governing board, or supervisor, approving the expenditure of time called for by the program.

b. An official transcript of all college and seminary work pursued to date. Included must be indications that the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Divinity, or their equivalents, were received from approved institutions.

c. Three letters of reference in which assessment is made of his or her ministerial practice.

d. An extended personal statement dealing with aspects of his or her ministerial practice and including a tentative sketch of a feasible thesis project.

The program normally is limited to persons who have been engaged in the regular practice of ministry for a period of at least three to five years. Applicants who receive notice of admission to the program must indicate to the Director within thirty days whether or not they intend to accept that admission.

PROGRAM

The phases of the curriculum leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree are four in number:

1. Satisfactory completion of two terms of workshop experience. The candidate participates with a dozen ministerial colleagues and members of the Faculty. Here concrete situations arising in ministry, together with the candidate's own patterns of practice, are critically assessed. For persons within commuting distance, workshops sometimes are scheduled to meet one day each week throughout two autumn semesters; for those beyond commuting distance, and usually for those within commuting distance as well, concentrated terms are scheduled for two three-week summer periods.

2. Individualized preparation for the qualifying examination. No specific courses are required of candidates generally, beyond the two terms of workshop. Each candidate prepares a self-evaluation in the light of workshop critiques, and at the conclusion of the first workshop outlines an individual program of preparation for the qualifying examination. This program may include summer school courses, conferences, laboratories, clinical pastoral education units, or other forms of education at Princeton or elsewhere.

3. Satisfactory completion of the qualifying examination. Candidates must pass an examination in which they analyze case situations of ministry from the four perspectives used throughout the D.Min. program: (a) caring and restorative aspects of ministry, (b) communicative and educative aspects of ministry, (c) administrative and organizational aspects of ministry, and (d) theological and ethical aspects of ministry. The examination is taken between the first and second workshops for both diagnostic and credit purposes, and portions not passed are retaken at scheduled examination periods following the second workshop.

4. A thesis project in some area associated with the practice of ministry. This project, written under the supervision of members of the Faculty, may take a form appropriate to the subject matter involved.

Failure to pay tuition or continuation fees by the end of the second semester of an academic year, without written approval of the Business Manager, will terminate the candidacy.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

The Doctor of Philosophy program is designed to prepare men and women for independent scholarship in various dimensions of the study of religion and for teaching in colleges and theological seminaries. Work currently is offered in five areas:

1. Biblical Studies [Old Testament, New Testament]
2. History and Ecumenics [Church History; History of Doctrine; Mission, Ecumenics, and History of Religions]
3. Theology [History of Christian Doctrine, Systematic Theology, Philosophy and Theology, Christian Ethics]
4. Religion and Society [Sociology of Religion, Social Ethics]
5. Practical Theology [Christian Education, Pastoral Theology, Theology and Communication in Preaching]

Upon petition, interdisciplinary programs are also sometimes approved and are pursued under the direct supervision of the Committee on Ph.D. Studies.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.), together with the necessary supporting documents, must be filed with the Director of Ph.D. Studies. Applications and supporting materials must be in Princeton by January 15, 1985. Applicants will be informed of the decision of the Committee on or about the first of March.

An applicant for the Ph.D. degree is required to furnish, among other items specified on the application form, the following credentials:

a. Transcripts of all college and seminary work pursued to date. Evidence must be provided to show that the applicant has been awarded the degree of Bachelor of Arts or its equivalent from an approved college or university, and the degree of Master of Divinity or its equivalent from an approved theological institution.

The M.Div. degree is required of candidates in Pastoral Theology and in Theology and Communication in Preaching. In other fields of study, if the M.Div. or its equivalent be absent, a minimum of two years of graduate study in religion is required, and, in the case of Christian Education, an M.A. or equivalent degree from an accredited seminary or graduate school. Included in the two years must be a course in each of Old Testament; New Testament; systematic theology, philosophy, or ethics; history of religions; a human science in relation to religion; and two courses in the history of Christianity.

b. The results of the Aptitude Test of the Graduate Record Examination and, for some fields, an appropriate Advanced Test. This examination is given at numerous centers throughout the world by the Educational Testing Service. Applications to take the examination should be sent to The Graduate Record Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08541, or (for far western states) Box 27896, Los Angeles, California 90027. For applicants whose native language is not English, the Test of English as a Foreign Language, also administered by Educational Testing Service, is to be substituted. The Educational Testing Service will transmit the examination results directly to Princeton Seminary.

Candidates in Religion and Society may be required to take the Advanced Test in Sociology, not as a basis of admission but for the purpose of placement and guidance.

Candidates in the Practical areas are required to submit evidence of professional practice under close supervision, or else must arrange to engage in such practice during their period of residence.

c. An essay or research paper in his or her intended area of specialization. This paper, either previously or specially prepared, should, in the mind of the applicant, be representative of his or her best work. It need not exceed fifteen or twenty pages. It will be evaluated by the following standards as evidence of the candidate's ability to work on the doctoral level: (1) understanding of the subject treated and the materials used, (2) knowledge of relevant bibliography, (3) cogency and clarity of argument, and (4) constructive originality of thought.

Applicants who receive notice that their applications have been approved must indicate to the Director within thirty days whether or not they intend to accept admission to the Seminary.

THE SEQUENCE OF A TYPICAL PROGRAM

The program of any particular doctoral candidate may deviate from the following outline at some points, but this sketch indicates in general what may be anticipated. More complete information concerning the Ph.D. program may be obtained by addressing the Director of Ph.D. Studies.

1. It is necessary for the entering doctoral candidate to demonstrate a working knowledge of at least one of the required modern languages prior to matriculation. The appropriate Graduate School Foreign Language Test, administered by Princeton Seminary, must be passed at the latest in September, or the candidate must have successfully completed the summer course for doctoral candidates in French or in German at Princeton University. Candidates who do not submit satisfactory scores, or who do not successfully complete the University language course, are not permitted to register for any courses except modern languages and are not eligible for financial aid. If the language test is not passed before the beginning of the second semester, candidacy in the program will be terminated. In similar fashion, the second language examination should be passed as early as possible, and at the latest in September prior to the opening of the second year of residence as a condition of registration.

2. An orientation day for incoming doctoral students is held immediately before the opening of the fall term in September. Questions of registration and advisement are handled at this time. The student is assigned a primary adviser and, usually, two other members of his or her residence committee. It is from this residence committee and especially its chairperson that the student secures counsel with regard to courses and other aspects of his or her program until the time of the comprehensive examinations.

3. A two-year period of full-time resident study prior to the completion of the comprehensive examinations is normally required. In no case is advanced standing granted at the time of acceptance for candidacy. In exceptional cases the Committee on Ph.D. Studies may later reduce the time of resident preparation for the comprehensive examinations on recommendation of the candidate's department. Under no condition will the minimum requirement of two years' full-time tuition be reduced.

4. In the second term of the first year of residence the student's work is reviewed by his or her residence committee and further courses of study are planned, leading to the comprehensive examinations, if satisfactory progress has been made.

5. The period of resident study culminates in the comprehensive examinations which are usually four or five in number, designed for five hours of writing each, followed by an oral of approximately two hours. With the permission of the candidate's residence committee and department, an essay may be presented in lieu of one of the examination papers. Other variations in testing procedure must be approved by the Committee on Ph.D. Studies. With specific exceptions approved by departments and the Committee on Ph.D. Studies, all examinations should be taken at one period, of which there are three each year. Dates for 1984-1985 are September and early October, January, and May. Students may take the comprehensive examinations in May of the second year of residence. The latest date by which they may be completed without special permission from the Committee on Ph.D. Studies is May of the year following the completion of residence. With permission of the candidate's residence committee and department, the examinations may be divided between no more than two of the dates within this period. Under no circumstances may examinations be undertaken until all language requirements have been satisfied, or completed before a dissertation proposal has been approved by the Committee on Ph.D. Studies.

6. The student is urged to give thought to possible areas and topics for the dissertation from the very beginning of residency. Seminar and course papers might well be chosen in part to explore such possibilities. A dissertation proposal should be worked out with the committee during the first semester of the second year of residence. In a form satisfactory to that residence committee, it must be submitted to the Committee on Ph.D. Studies at least two term-time months before the date of the comprehensive examinations or, where they are divided, the final written portions thereof. Candidates are urged to consider the dissertation proposal seminar when available. With the proposal in view, the Committee on Ph.D. Studies will consider the candidate's own suggestions and appoint a dissertation committee upon nomination by the department concerned. The chairperson of the dissertation committee must be a full-time member of the Seminary Faculty.

7. Upon satisfactory completion of the comprehensive examinations, the student prepares a dissertation, following procedures of counsel and evaluation agreed upon with the members of his or her dissertation committee. The dissertation must be accepted by the committee no later than March 15 of the year in which the degree is to be conferred.

8. A final public oral examination on the dissertation is required. The date is set by the dissertation committee, in consultation with the candidate and with the approval of the Director of Ph.D. Studies, after the dissertation has been accepted for examination. Upon satisfactory completion of this examination the candidate is recommended for the degree by the examiners.

9. At least one school day prior to the last regular Faculty meeting of the second semester, two copies of the dissertation, together with two copies of an abstract of not more than 350 words, one bound and one unbound, must be deposited in the Office of Ph.D. Studies. The dissertation is made available to the scholarly world by microfilm, for which the candidate completes the Microfilm Publication Agreement Form in the Office of the Ph.D. Studies. The abstract is published in Dissertation Abstracts.

Upon the completion of full-time resident study, candidacy is maintained by the payment of an annual continuation fee of $300. This fee is designed to cover the cost of institutional services ordinarily rendered to a student actively engaged in the writing of a dissertation. It does not envision, however, the pursuit of additional courses for academic credit. All degree requirements normally must be completed within six years of the beginning of candidacy. In unusual circumstances the Committee on Ph.D. Studies may authorize a relaxation of this rule, but in such cases the continuation fee is increased to $600 per year. Failure to pay tuition or continuation fees for an academic year without written approval of the Business Manager will terminate the candidacy.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS AND REQUIREMENTS

NATIONAL CAPITAL SEMESTER

The National Capital Semester for Seminarians offers an opportunity for a limited number of students in their fourth or fifth terms of residence to spend a semester in Washington, D.C., for the study of public policy from a theological perspective and for encounter with persons involved in the political process. The program entails supervised study, direct political interaction, and ethical reflection, and offers a full semester (four courses) of academic credit. Participants retain their enrollment in Princeton Seminary during the National Capital term, pay tuition to this institution, and are eligible for financial assistance. Application for the program should be made to the Academic Dean by December 1 for the spring semester and by April 1 for the autumn semester. Further information may be obtained from the office of the Academic Dean.

PROGRAM FOR ASIAN-AMERICAN THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY

The Program for Asian-American Theology and Ministry has been established by Princeton Theological Seminary to facilitate the theological education of leaders for the rapidly-growing Asian immigrant churches in the United States. The work of the Program finds focus in the recruitment, education, and placement of bilingual and bicultural second-generation Asian-American M.Div. students; the continuing education of first-generation Asian immigrant clergy and laity; and the development of theological, educational, and bibliographic resources for an effective ministry in Asian immigrant contexts.

Beyond its service to the Asian-American church, the Program seeks to promote mutual understanding and solidarity among persons of all ethnic and racial backgrounds, both within the Seminary and in the wider Christian community. Further information about the Program and its activities may be secured by addressing the Director of the Program for Asian-American Theology and Ministry, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

The Seminary admits a limited number of qualified applicants who desire to pursue studies in the Seminary on a matriculated basis but who do not wish to enroll as candidates for a degree. Special students usually are admitted for only one year of study and pursue a carefully selected group of courses under a Faculty adviser. They pay tuition either by the semester or by the course or practicum. Inquiries should be directed to the Director of Admissions.

AUDITORS

Regularly enrolled students and guests of the Seminary may audit classes provided they have secured the consent of the professors involved and have enrolled with the Registrar. No record will be maintained of any classes attended on this basis. Qualified persons who are not students of the Seminary may audit classes provided they have secured the permission of the professors involved, have enrolled with the Registrar, and (unless they are husbands or wives of regular students, or certified pastors in the Teaching Church Program) have paid the required fee for each course audited. Applicants should correspond with the Registrar. No auditors will be received after the first day of the term. Courses begun on an audit basis may not subsequently be changed to credit status.

UNCLASSIFIED STUDENTS

As a courtesy to other recognized schools of theology, students from those institutions may occasionally be admitted for a semester or a year of full-time or part-time work. The grades for such persons are transmitted to the sending schools, and Princeton Seminary provides no further transcript service. Unclassified students received in this way are not regarded to be alumni/ae of the Seminary.

A similar courtesy is extended to graduates of the Seminary who reside in the area and who wish to pursue an occasional course without becoming candidates for an advanced degree.

Persons who wish to inquire about unclassified status should correspond with the Registrar. Unclassified students are charged regular fees but are not eligible for financial assistance, and normally cannot be considered for campus accommodations.

VISITING FELLOWS

The Seminary offers its facilities to a limited number of mature scholars who wish to engage in research. Such students are listed as Visiting Fellows and are granted the use of the library. The privilege of attending classes is open to them, provided they have the permission of the Registrar and the professors involved. Limited housing facilities on campus are available. Applicants should correspond with the President.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

A student who has taken part of the theological course in another institution, and who desires to become a candidate for the M.Div. degree, or for the M.A. degree in Christian education, may make application for admission with advanced standing. In addition to the regular admissions credentials outlined earlier, such an applicant must present a letter from the institution in which he or she currently is enrolled, certifying to his or her good standing and dismissing him or her to this Seminary. Candidates in other programs may not apply credits earned elsewhere toward the Princeton requirements.

A maximum of eight courses and two practicums will be received in transfer toward either the M.Div. degree or the M.A. degree in Christian education, even though the applicant may have completed more than a year's work in another institution. In no case will a period of internship be accepted in fulfillment of course requirements, although it may serve to reduce the number of field education units that must be completed under the supervision of Princeton Seminary.

Transfer credit toward the M.Div. degree will be received only from programs that lead to the first professional degree in ministry, conducted by recognized schools of theology. A candidate for the M.A. degree in Christian education may on occasion be permitted to apply university graduate work toward the program requirements, but these credits will subsequently be disallowed if he or she changes to the M.Div. program.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Along with the other admission credentials, an international student desiring to enter the Seminary is required to have sent to the Director of Admissions (or, in the case of a Ph.D. applicant, the Director of Ph.D. Studies) a statement from his or her national church endorsing his or her educational plans as necessary preparation for a position of leadership in that church.

Not infrequently an application is received from a student whose preparatory education reflects a system rather different from that typical of the United States. In such instances, the equivalent of the A.B. degree is considered to be four years of regular academic study, primarily in the humanities, arts, and sciences, beyond the secondary (G.C.E.) level. Three additional years of full-time study, principally in the disciplines of theology, are then required to establish M.Div. equivalency.

In the case of an international student whose native language is not English, final approval of the application shall be contingent upon the receipt of a certificate of proficiency in written and spoken English. The basis of evaluation shall be the examination prepared by the Educational Testing Service unless the Director of Admissions or Committee on Ph.D. Studies shall specify an alternative instrument. The fee for any such test shall be borne by the applicant. After the student has undertaken a Seminary program, he or she may be required to withdraw from candidacy or from further study if, in the judgment of the Faculty, he or she is found to be inadequately prepared in the English language.

MID-YEAR ADMISSION

Under ordinary circumstances the student should begin Seminary work in the fall of the year. For good reasons, however, candidates for the M.Div., M.A., and Th.M. degrees, as well as Special students, may undertake their studies at the beginning of the second semester. This privilege cannot be extended to candidates for the Ph.D. degree.

TEACHER CERTIFICATION

Through a cooperative arrangement with Princeton University's Teacher Preparation and Placement Program, it is possible for selected Seminary students to obtain state secondary school teacher certification. Inquiries should be directed to Mr. Wall at the School of Christian Education.

MATRICULATION

Entering students who have presented satisfactory credentials are matriculated by subscribing to the following declaration required by the 1811 Plan of the Seminary:

“Deeply impressed with a sense of the importance of improving in knowledge, prudence, and piety, in my preparation for the Gospel ministry, I solemnly promise, in a reliance on divine grace, that I will faithfully and diligently attend on all the instructions of this Seminary, and that I will conscientiously and vigilantly observe all the rules and regulations specified in the plan for its instruction and government, so far as the same relate to the students; and that I will obey all the lawful requisitions, and readily yield to all the wholesome admonitions of the Professors and Trustees of the Seminary, while I shall continue a member of it.”

COMPLETION OF PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Every degree candidate is responsible for ascertaining whether his or her program of courses will fulfill the graduation requirements. The Office of the Registrar maintains current records on all students except Ph.D. and D.Min. candidates, who are served by the Ph.D. and D.Min. offices respectively, and students may review their progress during normal business hours. The Office of Professional Studies also is available to provide assistance in this respect. Although grade reports are issued at the close of each semester, the Seminary is not responsible for calling attention to deficiencies in a student's progress unless those deficiencies are made the basis for disciplinary action.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Additional rules and regulations governing life at the Seminary and the maintenance of candidacy are contained in the Handbook. This publication, issued each year at the beginning of the autumn semester, represents a portion of the educational contract between the student and the Seminary. Particular attention is called to the section on Standards for Satisfactory Progress, a federally-mandated guide to eligibility for certain kinds of financial assistance.

As an essential part of the admission process, applicants are requested to provide several kinds of information regarding their personal and academic background. Failure to make written disclosure of information solicited on the application form, or misrepresentation in the information supplied, constitutes a prima facie basis for denial of admission. Where omissions or misrepresentations come to light after matriculation at the Seminary, and are reasonably believed to cast doubt upon the student's suitability for theological study, he or she is subject to dismissal.

OTHER EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES
AT THE SEMINARY

THE
THEOLOGY

EACH SUMMER, usually during the early weeks of July, the Princeton Institute of Theology is in session on the campus. Ministers, educators, and church laypersons share for ten days in the classes, forums, workshops, and convocations. Guest professors and pastors from across the nation and overseas, as well as Princeton Faculty members and international representatives, provide the leadership in thought and discussion. The year 1984 is the forty-third in which several hundred men and women from many denominations and many areas of service will gather for instruction and inspiration. Inquiries may be addressed to The Princeton Institute of Theology, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542.

The program for the 1984 Institute, July 2-12, with the focus on the theme "The Christian Vision," is as follows:

BIBLE HOURS:

First Week—Marvin L. Cheyney, "Reflection on Redressing the Benign Neglect of 'Irrelevant' and 'Difficult' Passages in the Old Testament"

Second Week—F. Dale Bruner, "Matthew's Gospel"

CONVOICATIONS:

First Week—Roland M. Frye, "Divine Creation and Human Response"

Second Week—William B. Oglesby, "Creative Ministry in Contemporary Culture"

CENTER OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

Director: RONALD C. WHITE, JR.

Associate Director: SUZANNE P. M. RUDISELLE.

THE Center of Continuing Education on the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary offers ministers and laypersons an opportunity to participate further in theological inquiry and to increase their effectiveness for ministry. Its purpose is to bring small groups to the campus, away from the pressure of the heavy daily schedule of parish or office, to work under competent guidance and to use the facilities of a great theological library. Seminars are scheduled weekly and usually extend from Monday afternoon through Thursday noon.

In order to meet the many needs of ministry, a large variety of programs are offered under twelve topical headings. These include evangelism, mission, and outreach; music, literature, and art; pastoral care and counseling; preaching and communication; management in voluntary organizations; human relations; seminars for specialized groups; Christian education; intentionality and personal leadership; special aspects of ministry; spirituality, prayer, and worship; and philosophy, theology, and Bible.

Seminars for specialized groups include dialogue seminars (e.g., Jews and Christians, clergy and lawyers), workshops for church secretaries, and multiple staff events. Seminars dealing with special aspects of ministry treat such subjects as ecumenism, ministry to youth, and ministry with and to the elderly.

In addition to the seminars and workshops, the Center of Continuing Education has twenty-eight directed reading study guides. Each contains a brief introduction and a list of ten to fifteen books arranged in order of suggested reading. The majority of the guides has been prepared by members of the Faculty. The reading guide service is conducted by mail, with books being loaned from the Center's book room. There is no charge except for the cost of return postage.

Another service of the Center of Continuing Education is to assist in making arrangements for accommodations and meals for those wishing to come for a brief period of independent reading and study, using the facilities of Speer Library.

Facilities

The Center of Continuing Education has accommodations for fifty-four residents. The physical facilities include Adams House, which contains meeting rooms and sleeping accommodations for sixteen participants, and Erdman Hall for Continuing Education, a modern air-conditioned building that will house thirty-eight persons in individual rooms. The Center is located directly across from Speer Library and a short distance from the Chapel and dining hall. Meals are available in the cafeteria during the regular academic year, with the exception of the recess periods at Christmas and during the Spring.

A brochure is available in which the program of the Center and a schedule of fees is set forth in detail. This brochure, together with registration forms and additional information concerning opportunities at the Center, may be obtained by addressing the Director of Continuing Education, 12 Library Place, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Director: DAVID H. WALL.

Director of the Language School: CULLEN I K STORY.

THE SUMMER school is designed to make graduate theological education available to certain persons unable to attend the Seminary during the regular school year; to provide opportunities for additional work for students already enrolled in the Seminary; to enrich the institution's continuing education program; to provide a context in which intensive experimental work in theological education may be undertaken; and to incorporate such elements of summer work as the language program. Within limitations, the courses are open both to degree candidates and to properly qualified unclassified students.

The summer school, nine weeks in duration, is divided into three periods. Courses regularly are offered in the following subject areas:

Biblical Studies	Paul W. Meyer, Adviser
Theology and Ethics	Daniel L. Migliore, Adviser
Church History	Ronald C. White, Jr., Adviser
Homiletics	Thomas G. Long, Adviser
Christian Education	Freda A. Gardner, Adviser
Church Administration	Richard S. Armstrong, Adviser
Pastoral Theology	James N. Lapsley, Jr., Adviser

The schedule for 1984 is as follows:

FIRST PERIOD: June 4-22, 1984

- S123 The Book of Job. J.J.M. Roberts
- S220 Four Reformers: Erasmus, Luther, Muentzer, Calvin. Edward A. Dowey, Jr.
- S301 Eastern Paths and Christian Explorations. Charles A. Ryerson, III
- S622 The Theological Contributions of the Local Pastor. Peggy A. Way
- S651 Leadership and Group Dynamics. John T. Masterson
- S760 Sexual Education and the Faith Community. Manford H. Saunders and Alicia S. Babenco

Courses usually meet daily, five days a week, for two extended sessions. These sessions, confined to the morning hours, are interrupted by a recess for coffee and (on Tuesday and Thursday) for chapel. Afternoons and evenings are free for study, recreation, and special events. A typical schedule, subject to adjustment, would be:

First Session:	9:00-10:20
Recess/Chapel:	10:20-11:10
Second Session:	11:10-12:30

The courses are arranged with a view to providing coverage of a variety of areas within theological thought and practice that are particularly significant for the ministry today. For the most part, they are organized so that Th.M. candidates may develop coherent programs even though formal study must be confined to the summer months. Candidates for the Th.M. degree in the field of Pastoral Theology, however, may take no more than half of the required work during summer sessions.

Summer courses may be used by M.Div. candidates on a limited basis. Please consult the discussion under "Programs of Study."

Except where S661 and S662 are selected, a student may enroll for only one course during each of the specified periods.

BIBLICAL LANGUAGES

Classes in Biblical Hebrew and New Testament Greek, each carrying credit for two academic courses, are offered regularly. Sections meet for approximately three hours each day, five days a week, throughout the initial eight weeks of the regular summer session. Classes are scheduled to coincide as far as possible with the hours of the summer school courses, allowing students an opportunity to attend the chapel services.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Dormitory facilities for single students will be available throughout the nine-week summer session. Students who occupy these accommodations are required to take their meals in the Campus Center.

Charges for the summer session are detailed in the chapter of this catalogue entitled "Finances."

PROGRAM FOR 1985

The dates for the 1985 summer school will be: First Period, June 10-28; Second Period, July 1-19; Third Period, July 22-August 9. The program in biblical languages will run from June 10 through August 2.

Programs of study are offered in the following fields: Biblical Studies, Theology and Ethics, Homiletics, Christian Education, Church Administration, Pastoral Theology, and Church History.

For further information concerning the summer session, address Director of the Summer School, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542. Inquiries concerning the language classes should be addressed to Professor Cullen I K Story.

RELATIONS WITH PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

REGULARLY enrolled students in the Seminary may, with the approval of the Seminary and of the University, take certain courses in the University as part of their Seminary program. These courses ordinarily must be on the upper-division level, such that they would be appropriate for inclusion in a University graduate program. Except under the most unusual circumstances, occasioned by the requirements of a program of graduate research, a Seminary student normally is limited to one course in the University during any semester.

Similarly, students in the University may, with the approval of the University and of the Seminary, take courses in the Seminary as part of their University program.

Relations of academic reciprocity between the Seminary and the University permit the exercise of this privilege without additional tuition charges.

In view of the academic requirements in both institutions it is not possible for a student in the Seminary to become a candidate for a degree in the University when in candidacy for a degree in the Seminary.

The Graduate College, Princeton University

COURSES OF STUDY

The courses of study have been projected for the academic year 1984-1985 and, in a few instances, for the year 1985-1986. The program of courses is subject to such changes as circumstances may require. Any course for which there is insufficient enrollment may be cancelled by the Seminary.

THE ACADEMIC year is divided into two semesters, each approximately 15 weeks in length. Curricular offerings are of two types:

Courses—which represent, for purposes of transfer of credit, the equivalent of classes designed to meet three hours weekly for one semester;

Practicums—which represent, for purposes of transfer of credit, the equivalent of classes designed to meet one hour weekly for one semester.

A full-time program for M.Div. and M.A. (Christian education) candidates ordinarily consists of four courses and one or more practicums each semester; for Th.M. candidates, four courses each semester. The minimum load for full-time candidacy in the M.Div. and M.A. (Christian education) programs is three courses and one practicum per item.

Arrangement of Catalogue Entries

Courses and practicums are identified by codes consisting of two letters and two numbers. The letter portion of each code designates the field and department in which the offering is listed. These designations are:

Code	Field	Department
AD	Church Administration	Practical
CH	Church History	History
CS	Christianity and Society	History
DS	Ph.D. Seminar	All
EC	Ecumenics	History
ED	Christian Education	Practical
ET	Christian Ethics	Theology
EV	Evangelism	Practical
HD	History of Christian Doctrine	Theology
HR	History of Religions	History
MU	Church Music	Practical
NT	New Testament	Biblical
OT	Old Testament	Biblical
PH	Philosophy	Theology
PR	Preaching and Worship	Practical
PT	Pastoral Theology	Practical
SP	Speech and Communication	Practical
TH	Doctrinal Theology	Theology

The number portion of the code, beyond providing a unique identification for each offering, in some instances also indicates the level at which the class is taught. Numbers 00–09 designate introductory level work that does not ordinarily carry Th.M. credit; numbers 80–99 designate advanced level work often demanding extensive prerequisite knowledge. If a course or practicum is listed in more than one field, it ordinarily carries a separate code for each field.

Specific prerequisites and limitations on enrollment are set forth in field headings, in individual descriptions, and in separately available semester listings.

OLD TESTAMENT

GENERAL INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASSES

OT01 ORIENTATION TO OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES

An introduction to selected perspectives of the Old Testament through lectures, preceptorial group study, and directed reading in the Old Testament itself and in secondary literature. Not open to Th.M. or Ph.D. candidates.

First Semester, 1984-85

MESSRS. ROBERTS AND OLLENBURGER

First Semester, 1985-86

HEBREW SECTION. The following courses are open to M.Div. candidates who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements. Courses OT02 through OT04 may not normally be taken in fulfillment of the course requirements for the Th.M. or Ph.D. degree.

OT02 INTRODUCTORY BIBLICAL HEBREW

A concentrated semi-inductive study of Hebrew grammar based on a standard Hebrew grammar, on a careful analysis of one or more chapters of simple prose, and on additional readings selected from various portions of the Old Testament. Some attention to exegesis. An intensive course designed for those with language aptitude who plan to pursue further work in Hebrew.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. STORY

OT03,-04 INTRODUCTORY BIBLICAL HEBREW AND EXEGESIS

First semester: introduction to Hebrew grammar. Second semester: completion of Hebrew grammar and introduction to Hebrew exegesis, using selected Old Testament passages. The two semesters are designed to be taken in immediate sequence. If the sequence is interrupted, a placement examination must be passed before the second semester may be begun. Credit: one course each semester.

Full Year, 1984-85

MS. GAINES AND MR. SEOW

OT07,-08 HEBREW TRANSLATION

Designed to meet for one period each week throughout two semesters. Graded sections to accommodate persons with different levels of preparation in Hebrew grammar and reading. Credit: one course earned upon completion of the second semester of work.

Both Semesters, 1984-85 Ms. GAINES

OT10 ACCELERATED HEBREW READING

A reading course designed for graduate students and others who desire to gain proficiency in the reading of Hebrew prose. Several books of the Old Testament will be covered in the course of a semester. It is recommended that students with little experience in Hebrew reading consider completing course OT07-08 before enrolling for this class.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. J. ARMSTRONG

BASED ON THE ENGLISH BIBLE

Courses in this section are open to all students who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements. In the case of an M.Div. candidate, or M.A. candidate in Christian education, course OT01, Orientation to Old Testament Studies, is a prerequisite for all of these classes unless that foundational course is formally waived.

LITERATURE OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

OT11 THE PENTATEUCH: FORMATION OF A PEOPLE

A study of Israel's traditions about its emergence as a people under God's initiative. The prehistory, the patriarchs, exodus from Egypt, the wilderness, Sinai. Various methods of approaching these traditions, the theological perspectives represented, and the historical contexts.

First Semester, 1986-87

MS. SAKENFELD

OT12 INTRODUCTION TO THE PROPHETIC LITERATURE

The nature of Hebrew prophecy and its place in Israelite tradition. Study of selected portions of the prophetic books with attention to literary and form criticism, historical setting, and theological perspectives. Concentration on Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, and Jeremiah.

First Semester, 1984-85

MS. SAKENFELD

OT13 THE INTERPRETATION OF DEUTERONOMY

Study and interpretation of Deuteronomy on the basis of the English text. Particular attention will be given to treatment of texts that raise fundamental theological issues and that have played a significant role in theology, liturgy, and preaching. The basic question guiding the course will be: how to interpret Deuteronomy for teaching and preaching in the church. A portion of the time will be devoted to larger theological themes and concerns as they arise out of the book as a whole.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. MILLER

THEMATIC AND INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSES

OT30 OLD TESTAMENT INTERPRETATION

A study of the tools and methods available for a faithful understanding of Old Testament texts. The course will include a brief survey of Old Testament interpretation in the history of the church and the issue of the authority of the Old Testament. Selected texts will be studied as exemplars of the application of the tools and methods.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. SEOW

OT32 GOD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

The course will focus on the central word of the Old Testament, its witness to the God of Israel who was incarnate in Jesus Christ. Such topics as the character or attributes of God, the presence of God, the knowledge of God, distinctiveness and commonality in relation to other religious views of God, the role of anthropomorphic language, and the history of God will be considered. Exploration of these matters in the context of the Old Testament as a whole, and as they affect the way in which we think about Christian theology.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. MILLER

OT33 FROM MONARCH TO MESSIAH

A study of the development of messianic thought in Israel. The rise of Israelite imperialism, its theological justification, cultic elaboration, and the prophetic transformation of this symbolic pattern.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. ROBERTS

OT36 CURRENT ISSUES IN OLD TESTAMENT THEOLOGY

An examination of the historical background to contemporary discussions of Old Testament theology will be followed by a consideration of contemporary proposals. The focus will be on method and will center on the problems of theological unity in the diversity of Old Testament traditions, the relation of religion and theology, and the theological appropriation of the Old Testament. Consideration will also be given to the relation of Old Testament theology to contemporary concerns of the church.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. OLLENBURGER

OT38 OLD TESTAMENT THEOLOGIES OF WAR AND PEACE

A study of Israel's theology of holy war as it is developed in various Old Testament texts. Consideration of the Near Eastern context of this theology, its elaboration in different periods of Israel's history, and its investigation by modern Old Testament scholarship. The implication of "the wars of Yahweh" for Old Testament theology and the contemporary church's consideration of war and peace.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. OLLENBURGER

OT40 THE OLD TESTAMENT AND APOCALYPTIC

The origins and development of apocalyptic eschatology and apocalyptic literature in the Old Testament, drawing upon classical studies of the subject as well as current sociological and anthropological approaches. Principal attention to Daniel and portions of Isaiah, Ezekiel, Zechariah. Apocalyptic eschatology in relation to the major Old Testament traditions, its development in the intertestamental period, and its impact on the New Testament. The problem of interpreting apocalyptic today.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. OLLENBURGER

OT43 TEACHING THE BIBLE AS LIBERATING WORD

Biblical images as shapers of Christian identity; Bible stories as reinforcers and contradictors of sexism, racism, and classism. Structuring teaching-learning experiences in which the liberating word may be heard and gain response. Identical with course ED36.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MS. SAKENFELD AND MS. GARDNER

OT47 THEMES IN BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

A study of selected themes common to the two parts of the Christian canon. The course will examine various texts, in their historical and literary context, in which these themes are focused, and will consider their importance for an understanding of Scripture that is both biblical and theological. Prerequisites: both OT01 and NT01. Identical with course NT47.

First Semester, 1985-86

MESSRS. OLLENBURGER AND BEKER

BASED ON THE HEBREW BIBLE

Prerequisite to the following classes is a demonstrated knowledge of the elements of Biblical Hebrew, together with an understanding of basic exegetical procedures.

OT53 ISRAEL IN THE WILDERNESS: EXEGETICAL STUDIES IN THE BOOK OF NUMBERS

Exegesis of selected portions of the book of Numbers, with emphasis on themes of pilgrim living. The journey of an eager but complaining people guided and disciplined by a strong and compassionate God; shared and disputed leadership, daily bread, daring women, intercessory prayer, judgment and forgiveness, the power of God's spirit.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MS. SAKENFELD

OT58 EXEGESIS OF FIRST ISAIAH

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Hebrew text.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. ROBERTS

OT60 EXEGESIS OF JEREMIAH

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Hebrew text.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. ROBERTS

OT63 EXEGESIS OF HOSEA

Reading and exegesis of the Hebrew text. Focal concerns of the prophet considered in the light of the historical and religious situation in Israel. Designed as an advanced course in Old Testament exegesis.

Second Semester, 1986-87

MS. SAKENFELD

OT66 PROPHETS OF JUDAH'S RESTORATION

Reading and exegesis of selected Hebrew texts representative of post-exilic prophecy in Judah (Trito-Isaiah, Haggai, Zechariah, etc.). Acquisition and practice of exegetical method in the study of Hebrew prophecy; study of the use by later Hebrew prophets of Israel's dominant theological themes. The way in which Hebrew traditions were interpreted and applied in a situation of restoration, and the disparity of theological views that developed in this period. Designed as an advanced course in Old Testament exegesis.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. OLLENBURGER

OT70 EXEGESIS OF THE BOOK OF PSALMS

Exegesis and interpretation of individual psalms with particular attention to those that have a central place in the life, liturgy, and theology of the Jewish and Christian communities; exploration of the role these psalms have played in church and synagogue and their present possibilities for Christian praise, preaching, and prayer. Some attention will be given to larger questions having to do with the Psalter as a whole, such as the Psalter as collection, as prayerbook, as liturgy, and as basis for theology. Designed to enable students both to sharpen their exegetical skills and to deepen their familiarity with and understanding of this significant part of the Bible.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. MILLER

OT71 EXEGESIS OF ECCLESIASTES

Reading and exegesis of major portions of the Hebrew text, with special emphasis upon the importance of Ecclesiastes specifically, and of wisdom materials generally, for the theology of the Old Testament.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. J. ARMSTRONG

OT85 HEBREW IN ITS WEST SEMITIC CONTEXT

A historical and comparative study of Hebrew grammar designed for graduate students and others who are properly qualified. Survey of the contributions of Ugaritic literature, the Amarna tablets, and other epigraphic materials from Syria-Palestine. Representative Phoenician, Aramaic, Ammonite, and Hebrew inscriptions will be read and discussed. Selected portions of the Old Testament also will be examined in the light of West Semitic studies.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. SEOW

OT93 UGARITIC GRAMMAR

Introduction to the grammar; study of a selected text.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. ROBERTS

A study of the epistle in English translation. Additional hour available for students who wish to read the Greek text.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. MEYER

NT30 INTERPRETATION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

An introduction to the discipline of hermeneutics as applied to the literature of the New Testament, with special reference to historical-critical methods of exegesis and problems of a theological interpretation of Scripture. Consideration will be given to the necessity of a philosophical description of the hermeneutical task, with reference to the theories of E.D. Hirsch, Jr., H.G. Gadamer, and Paul Ricoeur.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. GILLESPIE

NT32 NEW TESTAMENT CHRISTOLOGY

An investigation of major titles attributed to Jesus, their pre-Christian usage, their appropriation in the early church. The use of the Old Testament in christological contexts. The emergence of patterns of narrative christology.

First Semester, 1985-86

MR. ADAMS

NT33 TOPICS IN NEW TESTAMENT THEOLOGY

Issues in the appropriation of the New Testament in the modern world, with emphasis on secondary literature in the field. Open to 25 students who have completed, in addition to NT01, at least one seminary course in the interpretation of New Testament literature. Course may be repeated for credit with changes in topic.

Topic for 1984-1985: The approaches to New Testament theology taken by Rudolf Bultmann and Leonhard Goppelt. Topic for 1985-1986 to be announced.

MR. ADAMS

NT36 EARLY CHRISTOLOGIES

A search for an understanding of how Jesus was perceived by his earliest followers, from the thirties to the nineties, and a study of their use of language. Lectures, with some discussion of the importance of these early christologies for the church today.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. CHARLESWORTH

NT37 THE HISTORICAL THEOLOGY OF EARLY JUDAISM

An attempt to understand the complex phenomena in the Judaism of Jesus' day. A study of how theology is shaped by and united with historical events. Reading in English of the major Dead Sea Scrolls, Old Testament Apocrypha, and Old Testament Pseudepigrapha, with particular attention to the development of such special themes as the concepts of the after life, resurrection and paradise, the origins of evil, the issues of sin and forgiveness, the preoccupation with theodicy, reflections on God's "godness," and the various messianic beliefs.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. CHARLESWORTH

NT41 CHRIST VERSUS EVIL SPIRITS AND POWERS

A study of evil spirits and powers in selected New Testament passages; their significance for understanding the gospel message and for modern theology.

First Semester, 1985-86

MR. DE BOER

NT44 BIBLICAL EXEGESIS IN THE EARLY AND MEDIEVAL CHURCH

Jewish and Hellenistic exegesis; methods of scriptural interpretation in the New Testament; Alexandria and Antioch; hermeneutical writings of the Fathers from Origen to Gregory the Great; scholastic principles of exegesis; the four-fold sense of Scripture; the commentaries of the late Middle Ages. Interfield course identical with CH25.

Prerequisites: one collegiate or seminary course on church history to the Reformation; course NT01, unless waived, and one other collegiate or seminary course introductory to the Bible. Biblical languages desirable but not mandatory.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. FROELICH

NT45 THE BIBLE IN RECENT THEOLOGY

Exploration of various ways of understanding the authority of the Bible for Christian faith and theology. Special attention will be given to several recent emphases in biblical interpretation: the recovery of biblical narrative; the Bible as "classic" text and as "Scripture"; the contribution of sociological analyses to biblical study; the hermeneutics of feminist theology; and the praxis hermeneutics of Latin American liberation theology. Additional prerequisite: course TH01. Identical with course TH49.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MESSRS. BEKER AND MIGLIORE

NT46 THE NATURE AND FUNCTION OF AUTHORITY IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

An examination of selected New Testament materials with a view to analyzing the role of warrants, sanctions, and criteria in New Testament theology against the background of the problems of authority in contemporary Christian thought.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. MEYER

NT47 THEMES IN BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

A study of selected themes common to the two parts of the Christian canon. The course will examine various texts, in their historical and literary context, in which these themes are focused, and will consider their importance for an understanding of Scripture that is both biblical and theological. Prerequisites: both OT01 and NT01. Identical with course OT47.

First Semester, 1985-86

MESSRS. BEKER AND OLLENBURGER

NT48 INTERPRETATION AND COMMUNICATION IN PREACHING

Interdisciplinary exploration of the relationship of hermeneutical principles and communication dynamics involved in preaching from different kinds of biblical texts. Students will present sermons as case studies of the way messages are constructed on the basis of these types of texts, in the light of theoretical material presented in lectures. Prerequisites in addition to NT01: course PR01 and practicum PR02 or their transfer equivalents. Enrollment limited; priority given to Th.M. candidates and Seniors. Identical with course PR63.

First Semester, 1984-85

MESSRS. BEKER AND NICHOLS

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES BASED ON THE GREEK TEXT

Prerequisite to the following classes is a demonstrated knowledge of the elements of New Testament Greek, together with an understanding of basic exegetical procedures.

LITERATURE OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

NT50 THE LIFE AND THOUGHT OF JESUS OF NAZARETH

A struggle with the question of what can be known reliably about Jesus' life and essential message. Through references to the Jewish literature, contemporaneous with Jesus, with insights obtained from archaeological research, and by an in-depth exploration of select New Testament texts especially, the course will search for the history behind and within kerygmatic faith. The dimension of history and faith in all credal formulae.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. CHARLESWORTH

NT52 EXEGESIS OF THE PARABLES OF JESUS

Reading and exegesis of the Greek text. Literary, historical, and theological interpretation of the parables; their significance in the ministry of Jesus, in the gospels, and in the present.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. DE BOER

NT55 EXEGESIS OF THE GOSPEL OF MARK

Reading and exegesis of selected portions of the Greek text.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. STORY

NT56 EXEGESIS OF THE GOSPEL OF LUKE

Reading and exegesis of selected passages from the Greek text, with emphasis on exegetical method and Luke's appropriation of the Jesus tradition.

First Semester, 1985-86

NT57 EXEGESIS OF THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

Reading and exegesis of selected passages from the Greek text, with emphasis on exegetical method and John's understanding of the death of Jesus. Limited to twenty-five students; priority given to Th.M. candidates and Seniors. Additional prerequisite: course NT01.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. DE BOER

NT58 EXEGESIS OF THE BOOK OF ACTS

Reading and exegesis of selected passages in Greek, with special attention to Luke's conception of salvation history. Translation groups, lecture, discussion. Designed as an advanced course in New Testament exegesis. Enrollment limited to twelve students, in addition to Ph.D. candidates.

Second Semester, 1984-85

NT60,-61 EXEGESIS OF THE EPISTLE TO THE ROMANS

Reading and exegesis of the epistle, with careful attention to the Greek text. Special concern for the nature and purpose of Romans, Paul's theology therein, and exegesis that results in appropriate preaching today. Lectures, translation classes, and discussion preceptorials. Chapters 1-8 will be studied in the first semester; chapters 9-16, in the second semester.

First Semester, 1985-86

MR. BEKER WITH MS. EDWARDS

NT62 EXEGESIS OF FIRST CORINTHIANS

Reading and exegesis of the Greek text, with special attention to the ways that the problem of Paul's authority and the situation at Corinth shape the dynamics of the epistle.

First Semester, 1984-85

NT63 EXEGESIS OF SECOND CORINTHIANS

Reading and exegesis of the Greek text, including the tangled life-situation in Corinth, the new covenant, and Paul's place in the divine plan. Two of Dostoevsky's novels, Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov, will be read and analyzed in conjunction with the attempt to understand Paul's struggle with the Corinthian church.

Second Semester, 1984-85 MR. STORY

NT64 EXEGESIS OF GALATIANS AND JAMES

Translation and exegesis of these two apparently opposed (faith vs. works) yet presumably compatible (canonical) letters. Careful attention to the Greek text with special concern for relevance in ministry today. Consideration of the letters in sequence, followed by comparison; individual sermons or comparable project applying interpretation of both books.

MS. EDWARDS

NT70 EXEGESIS OF THE JOHANNINE EPISTLES

Reading and exegesis of the Greek text, with special attention to the historical situation out of which these epistles arose.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. DE BOER

NT71 EXEGESIS OF FIRST PETER

Reading and exegesis of the Greek text; examination of hymnic and paraenetic traditions used in the document; the place of the letter in the history of New Testament theology. Designed as an advanced course in New Testament exegesis.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. MEYER

NT74 EXEGESIS OF THE APOCALYPSE OF JOHN

Translation and exegesis of the Greek text, with special attention to Semitic influences upon it and to the historical milieu that produced the masterpiece; comparison of the Apocalypse with contemporaneous Jewish apocalypses. Discussion of the importance and place of historical research for faith and for present-day forms of "apocalyptic" enthusiasm.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. CHARLESWORTH

NT75 IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH

Reading of the Greek text of the Ignatian corpus. The theology of Ignatius with special reference to connections with the theology of John and of Paul.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. STORY

PH.D. SEMINARS

These classes, conducted either as seminars or as tutorials according to the requirements of enrollment, are designed for and normally restricted to candidates for the Ph.D. degree. Exceptions, never to constitute the majority of a class, may be made only where the student demonstrates a command of the scholarly tools ordinarily necessary for doctoral study.

DS01 METHODOLOGY IN OLD TESTAMENT THEOLOGY

The seminar will focus on the problematics of Old Testament theology in light of the methodological challenges of post-enlightenment historical consciousness and critical historical approaches to Old Testament traditions and Israel's faith. Emphasis upon the history of research as well as upon contemporary proposals.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. OLLENBURGER

DS02 NEAR EASTERN BACKGROUNDS TO ISRAELITE RELIGION

A study of the ancient religious world out of which the biblical faith arose and in which it began to take shape, giving equal attention to elements of continuity and discontinuity.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. ROBERTS

DS04 BIBLICAL HISTORY IN ITS ANCIENT NEAR EASTERN CONTEXT

A study of selected problems in the history of Israel, with emphasis on methodology and the use of epigraphic and non-epigraphic remains in historical reconstruction.

First Semester, 1985-86

MS. SAKENFELD

DS05 EXEGESIS AND INTERPRETATION

Designed to emphasize the development of skill in the exegesis and analysis of biblical texts so that literary, historical, and theological conclusions may be drawn from them. Attention will be given to textual criticism, literary criticism, form criticism, and the like, with concern for methodology and procedure in the student's own research and reporting of results. The seminar also will deal with larger questions of interpretation, such as the relation of Old Testament and New Testament; the use of particular texts in the church, past and present; and the theological appropriation of biblical texts.

First Semester, 1984-85

PHILOSOPHY

INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASSES

The following courses are designed to provide introductory perspectives on the field and are recommended especially for students whose preparation does not include such an orientation.

PH01 PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

An introduction to philosophical reflection on religion by a study of the relation of faith to reason, the traditional arguments for God's existence, the meaning of religious beliefs, and the problem of evil. There will be an emphasis on recent developments.

1986-87

MR. ALLEN

PH05 CHRISTIANITY AND THE MODERN MENTALITY

A course providing a historical and philosophical analysis of selected developments in science, philosophy, politics, and economics, and their implications for Christianity, in the period ca. 1600-1900. General background lectures will be combined with discussion groups which focus on specific readings.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. ALLEN

MULTI-PROGRAM CLASSES

The following courses are open to all students who have met the appropriate prerequisite requirements as set forth in the individual descriptions. Each M.Div. candidate must include within the distribution requirement at least one course, drawn from any division of the department, carrying the designation () at the end of the description.*

PH11 THE CONCEPT OF LOVE FROM PLATO TO THE PRESENT

A survey of the major philosophical and theological theories concerning the nature and significance of love. Such questions as the distinctiveness of Christian love, the nature of friendship, and the possibility of escape from egotism will be considered. Besides such major figures as Plato, Augustine and Dante, the recent controversy initiated by Nygren's Agape and Eros will be of particular concern. Open to students with a course in doctrinal theology or philosophy on either the collegiate or the seminary level.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. ALLEN

PH21 THE THEOLOGY OF AUSTIN FARRER

The works of Farrer will be approached from several perspectives: first, as concerned with the philosophic, theological, and biblical problems in our claims to knowledge of God; second, as concerned with the relevance of intellectual inquiry for a life of devotion; third, as a preacher; and fourth, as a creator of a twentieth century Anglican "middle way." (*)

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. ALLEN

PH25 THREE APOLOGIES FOR THE SPIRITUAL LIFE

An examination of Pascal, Kierkegaard, and Simone Weil's conception of the spiritual life, and how this undergirds their understanding of the meaning and truth of Christian beliefs.

1986-87

PH31 THE PHILOSOPHY OF KANT

A close study of the Critique of Pure Reason and Religion within the Limits of Reason Alone, together with other relevant Kantian works which bear on the meaning and truth of religious beliefs. Open to students who have completed two courses in philosophy or doctrinal theology, on either the collegiate or the seminary level.

1986-87

PH35 ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY

Examination of some of the philosophical and ethical views of the Greek philosophers, poets, and dramatists which have influenced Christian theology, such as Plato, Aristotle, Homer, and Aeschylus. Consideration will be given to the question whether some Greek writers had a partial revelation of Christian truth, and to the question of the proper use of non-Christian sources for Christian theology.

1986-87

MR. ALLEN

DOCTRINAL THEOLOGY

INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASS

The following course is designed for the student with a minimal background in the formal study of theology at the seminary level. Successful completion of this course, or demonstration of equivalent work done in another school of theology, is prerequisite for further work in the field.

TH01 INTRODUCTION TO THEOLOGY

The nature of doctrinal theology; the needs of Christian faith and life that prompt theological reflection and formulation; theology in the service of the church and its mission today; the authority of Scripture; the meaning of revelation; the centrality of Jesus Christ as reflected in the basic Christian affirmations.

First Semester, 1984-85

Second Semester, 1984-85

Each M.Div. candidate must include within the distribution requirement at least one course, drawn from any division of the department, carrying the designation () at the end of the description.*

TH11 THE DOCTRINE OF GOD

The mystery and self-revelation of God; the tension between the biblical understanding of God and classical philosophical conceptions; the attributes of God; the doctrine of the Trinity; the inseparability of knowledge of God and knowledge of ourselves. (*)

First Semester, 1985-86

MR. MIGLIORE

TH12 CHRISTOLOGY

The doctrine of the person and work of Jesus Christ, developed both historically and systematically, and in critical dialogue with modern attempts at christological reconstruction. (*)

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. MIGLIORE

TH13 THE PERSON AND WORK OF THE SPIRIT

Study of the creative, freeing, and sanctifying experience of the Spirit. Critical reconsideration of grace and human potentiality, of the criteria for judging the spirits, and of ordering diverse gifts for the church's worship and mission. (*)

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. WILLIS

TH14 INCARNATION AND WHOLENESS

Study of the contemporary relevance of incarnational theology to societal and personal wholeness. Reexamination of the nature of christological confessions, the dynamic of God's being for humanity in the person of Christ, and evaluation of different models of incarnation and atonement. (*)

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. WILLIS

TH15 PROVIDENCE AND EVIL

The meaning of God's providence in history, especially as it bears upon the problem of evil and suffering. This question will be explored in dialogue with such figures as Calvin, Edwards, Moltmann, Gilkey, and David Griffin. (*)

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. LEE

TH21 BLACK THEOLOGY AND FEMINIST THEOLOGY: FRIENDS OR FOES?

A critical examination of the black and feminist theological perspectives focusing upon the works of major proponents of the perspectives. In relation to them, parameters for a black feminist perspective in theology will be explored.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MS. GRANT

TH23 BLACK THEOLOGY

Designed as an introduction to a theological enterprise among black North Americans. The beginning of black theology in the late 1960's and its present and future concerns as defined by dialogue within and outside the black community. Attention also will

The calling and sending of the church in contemporary society; the ministry of the whole people of God and ordination to the special ministry of Word and sacrament; theological foundations of proclamation, baptism, and the Lord's Supper; emergent ecumenical agreements and continuing differences of theologies and practices of ministry and sacraments. Identical with course EC15. (*)

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. WILLIS

TH27 CONTEMPORARY HERMENEUTICS IN THEOLOGY

An introductory analysis of hermeneutical theory in current Christian theology, primarily as theology has been influenced by the works of Hans-Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur. A survey of the main types of hermeneutical influence on theology as evident in the thought of contemporary Christian theologians David Tracy, Gordon Kaufman, and Edward Farley. Dual focus on Gadamer's and Ricoeur's dependence upon Christian theological tradition (particularly on Augustine, Luther, and Schleiermacher), and their own critical extensions of that tradition.

First Semester, 1985-86

MR. TAYLOR

TH34 THE PHILOSOPHICAL THEOLOGY OF HEGEL

A survey of Hegel's religious thought and his influence in nineteenth and twentieth century theology. Selected readings will be drawn from Hegel's Early Theological Writings, his Phenomenology of Spirit, and his Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion. Against the background of these writings, the course will focus on assessments and appropriations of Hegel's thought made by such theologians as Biedermann and Troeltsch of the nineteenth century and Barth, Tillich, Pannenberg, Rahner, and Küng of the twentieth.

First Semester, 1985-86

MR. TAYLOR

TH36 JONATHAN EDWARDS

A study of Edwards' thought with particular attention to his attempt at a restatement of the reformed perspective in the context of his own age. The central focus will be upon his idea of faith as a "sense of the heart" and his conception of God and the world, of Christ and the Christian life, as essentially relational, dynamic, and beautiful. The contemporary usefulness of Edwards' theology. (*)

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. LEE

TH37 THE THEOLOGY OF FRIEDRICH SCHLEIERMACHER

A study of Schleiermacher as reputed "father of modern theology." A critical study of his Speeches to religion's "cultured despisers," his sermons as Reformed pastor, and his theology in The Christian Faith. Special attention also given to contemporary theologians' interpretation of Schleiermacher. (*)

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. TAYLOR

TH38 REFORMED THEOLOGY IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

A study of the shape and major directions of Reformed theology in this century as evident from representative theological documents. These will be analyzed against the background of biographical data, social influences, and ethical responses of the period.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. WILLIS

TH40 THE THEOLOGY OF KARL BARTH

A critical study of the basic themes of Barth's theology; his attack on "religion" and "natural theology"; his christocentric interpretation of the Bible and reconstruction of church doctrines; his description of Christian life as the practice of the freedom of the gospel. (*)

Second Semester, 1985-86

MR. MIGLIORE

TH41 THE THEOLOGY OF PAUL TILlich

A concentration on Tillich's system as a whole through reading of his systematic theology, focusing on his theology of culture, the religious dimension, Being, and Christ as New Being. Tillich's system will be viewed also in light of his sermons and essays about concrete issues and situations. (*)

First Semester, 1984-85

PROGRAM IN SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH, MEASUREMENT, AND EVALUATION. This program, which draws upon the facilities of Princeton Theological Seminary and the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey, is designed to prepare Christian educators and others to use established methods of research and measurement in the solution of problems in Christian education and social research in religion. It is flexible enough to meet the needs of those who desire a general acquaintance with the methods of research and evaluation sufficient to read and understand relevant research literature, and of those who wish to conduct research and evaluation studies and to build the instruments to be used in such studies. In addition to the other catalogued courses in Christian Education, Theology and Personality, and Christianity and Society, the following offerings are available for qualified applicants.

ED71 INTERPRETING SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

An introductory course which emphasizes the place of statistical and logical concepts in the solution of problems in Christian education and social research in religion. The emphasis is on understanding and evaluating the research of others rather than on skills in original research. Basic concepts include sampling, statistical significance, tests, survey methods, and problem analysis.

First Semester, 1984-85

E.T.S. STAFF

ED72 DESIGNING SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

Methods of collecting, organizing, and interpreting evidence relevant to the solution of educational problems and problems in social research in religion. Principles of measurement and techniques of evaluation, including methods of test development and methods of developing other evaluative instruments, analyzing educational and religious objectives, preparing a test or research plan, writing and editing test items, and analysis of research data. The emphasis is on the development of skill in applying techniques to problems in Christian education and social research in religion. Prerequisite: course ED71 or its equivalent.

Second Semester, 1984-85

E.T.S. STAFF

ED73 SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL STATISTICS

A more advanced course in social and educational statistics, building on the statistics dealt with in ED71. May be taken concurrently with ED72 as a tutorial or tool subject. Registration by special arrangement with the instructors.

Second Semester, 1984-85

E.T.S. STAFF

ED74 INTERNSHIP IN SOCIAL AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH, MEASUREMENT, AND EVALUATION

Available to one or two selected students each year. The applicant must have completed the courses indicated above and must present evidence of being prepared to profit from experience at the Educational Testing Service. A specific project, a plan of study, or arrangements to participate in some on-going project at the Educational Testing Service ordinarily constitutes such evidence. It is expected that each applicant will have an opportunity to discuss the plan with one or more members of the Educational Testing Service staff prior to its formal presentation. At the time of acceptance, the intern is assigned to an Educational Testing Service staff member who serves as adviser during the period of the internship. The adviser is available for consultation, but the intern is expected to take the initiative in planning and pursuing the studies, calling on the adviser for assistance upon the resources available at the institution in relation to specific problems as they arise. Ordinarily, an internship involves full-time work and study at the Educational Testing Service for a period of six weeks during the summer or an equivalent amount of time over a semester during the academic year. Persons interested in academic credit for the internship should consult with Ms. Gardner in advance.

PRINCETON-TRINITY SUPERVISION PROGRAM

The following courses are conducted at Trinity Counseling Service as part of a cooperative program in the supervision of pastoral care. They are required of, and limited to, Th.M. candidates enrolled in that program.

PT81 INTRODUCTORY SUPERVISION OF PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

Designed with a view to the needs of the parish minister, this course introduces the student to such issues as pastoral diagnosis, pastoral care plans, and referral procedures. Each student is expected to present case studies for supervision from his or her own parish work. Group supervision performed through the medium of live interviews, videotape interviews, and verbatim case studies.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. CHILDS AND T.C.S. STAFF

PT82 INTERMEDIATE SUPERVISION OF PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

Designed to provide continued case supervision of parish pastoral care and counseling, using live interviews and videotape presentations. Particular emphasis will be given to the pastoral care and counseling of marriages and families. Group supervision, with provision for individual consultations as indicated. Prerequisite: course PT81.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. CHILDS AND T.C.S. STAFF

PT83,-84 ADVANCED SUPERVISION OF PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

Designed to deal with the ongoing pastoral care and counseling performed by students in their parish or other ministry settings. Special emphasis will be placed upon the pastoral care of marriages and families, as well as upon special issues involved in ministry such as substance abuse, grief, sexuality, etc. Each student is expected to make case presentations of ongoing counseling through the use of live interviews, videotape interviews, and case studies. Group supervision, with provision for individual consultations as needed. Prerequisites: courses PT81 and PT82.

Full Year, 1984-85

MR. CHILDS AND T.C.S. STAFF

PH.D. SEMINARS

Where enrollment warrants, the Department of Practical Theology makes available to Ph.D. candidates in Pastoral Theology, in Christian Education, and in Theology and Communication in Preaching one or two seminars each semester over a two-year period. These seminars are described in a section beginning on page 121 of this catalogue.

SPEECH AND COMMUNICATION

INTRODUCTORY LEVEL CLASSES

The following practicums are designed for entering students in the M.Div. program, and the M.A. program in Christian education, although they also are open to other students who may desire such work.

SP01 FUNDAMENTALS OF EXPRESSION: EXPERIMENTATION WITH SOUND AND SENSE IN SPEECH

Practicum. Voice production and articulation as tools for effective communication; principles of phrasing and emphasis in interpretative speech. Special attention to correction of individual speech faults. Audio and video recordings; private conferences. Prescribed in the first year for M.Div. candidates, and for candidates for the M.A. degree in Christian education. Assignment to class sections is made in consultation with a member of the staff after an initial recording has been made.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. BEENERS AND STAFF

SP02 FUNDAMENTALS OF EXPRESSION: EXPLORATION OF INTERPRETATIVE TECHNIQUES

Practicum. Experience in communicating narrative and interpretative material from Scripture, poetry, and drama. Adaptation of content and expression to various speaking occasions. Effective self-expression through voice quality and diction. Audio-visual recordings and private conferences. Prescribed in the first year of study for M.Div. candidates required to take practicum PR02. Prerequisite: practicum SP01.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. BEENERS AND STAFF

Second Semester, 1985-86

ADVANCED CLASSES

The following offerings are available to students in all programs. Practicum SP02 (formerly SP11) is a prerequisite for all of these classes.

SP15 PREPARATION AND DELIVERY OF ADDRESSES

Presentation of brief addresses for special occasions in theory and practice. Emphasis upon purposive speaking and adaptation to environment and audience. Experimentation in extemporaneous speaking, story telling, introductions, presentations, acceptances, public interviews, and minor conflict situations. Video-taping facilities available. Credit: one course.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. BEENERS AND STAFF

SP21 INTERPRETATIVE SPEECH

Development of interpretative techniques and speaking ease through the oral reading of poetry and prose selections from the Bible as well as from classic and contemporary literature. Practicum.

Either Semester, 1984-85

MR. BROWER

SP22 ADVANCED INTERPRETATIVE SPEECH

Interpretative reading of representative poems by modern American and British writers, with emphasis on the works of Robert Frost. Optional work in oral reading of prose selections, including short stories. Practicum. Open only to students who have completed practicum SP21.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. BROWER

SP31,-32 THE SPOKEN WORD IN WORSHIP

Concentration upon making the speaking activity more meaningful in worship, preaching, and Scripture reading. Interpretative principles demonstrated in situational speech with special emphasis on services of Holy Communion, baptism, marriage, and the funeral. Nonverbal aspects will be studied through analysis of audio-video tapes made in class. The two semesters are designed as a unit and should be taken in sequence; however, special arrangements may be made for a student to enroll for only one of the two semesters, with the approval of the Director of Speech. Credit: one practicum each semester.

Both Semesters, 1984-85

MR. BEENERS

Both Semesters, 1985-86

SP41,-42 IMPROMPTU SPEECH COMMUNICATION

Impromptu techniques as a means to effective speech communication. Designed to sharpen concentration, employ images, and acquire ease in speaking. Specific projects in situational awareness, verbal and nonverbal expression, using scriptural and secular materials. Practicum. Limited to 10 students.

Both Semesters, 1984-85

MS. DAMON

SP60 DRAMA IN WORSHIP AND EDUCATION

The uses of drama within the life of the church. Critique of learning through participant and audience involvement. Analysis and in-class performance of plays and other dramatic materials. Development of standards and resources for church drama groups of all ages. Identical with course ED38. Limited to twenty-five students. Credit: one course.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. JACKS AND MS. GARDNER

SP61 THE ARTS IN THE SERVICE OF THE CHURCH

Studies in the fields of aesthetics, the arts, dramatic theory, theology, and education, focusing upon the church; projects in the arts as used in education and in worship. Identical with courses MU31 and PR76. Prerequisite: practicum SP02.

Second Semester, 1985-86

MESSRS. JACKS AND WEADON

SP65 PLAY PRODUCTION FOR THE CHURCH

A practicum. Production techniques for choosing, editing, and performing plays and readings by church-affiliated drama interest groups. Students will participate in choice, rehearsal, and presentation of a play or a program of readings. Students must enroll with the Registrar in accordance with procedures governing all classes taken for credit. This practicum may not be used to meet the departmental distribution requirement.

Either Semester, 1984-85

MESSRS. BEENERS AND BROWER

SP70 THEOLOGY AS CRITICAL INSIGHT

The aim of the course is two-fold: to develop theological criteria for critical evaluation, and to explore how the spoken and written word can express and recreate basic biblical patterns of faith and life. Dramatized life-situations from the award-winning television series Insight (Paulist Productions) will be presented for critical discussion; students are encouraged to achieve insight into themselves in responding to these episodes, while preparing a major paper on some aspect of the re-creative word. Credit: one course.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. KERR

SP75 INTRODUCTION TO MEDIA TECHNOLOGY

A practicum. Workshop in the selection, operation, and routine maintenance of standard film, slide, sound, and video equipment and the evaluation of films, slides, and tapes for specific uses.

First Semester, 1984-85

MR. WHITELOCK

SP76 MEDIA PRODUCTION TECHNIQUES

A practicum. Workshop in the photographic, recording, and editing skills used in preparing original media materials. Film, synchronized slide/sound, and videotape formats will be explored in the preparation of student projects. Additional prerequisite: practicum PR75 or its equivalent.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. WHITELOCK

SP78 DEVELOPING COMMUNICATION SKILLS IN MINISTRY TO THE DEAF

The language of signing designed especially for those interested in ministering to the deaf. Level I will be taught during the first semester; Level II, during the second. Credit: one practicum each semester. These practicums may not be used to meet the departmental distribution requirement. Arrangements should be made through the Speech Office.

Both Semesters, 1984-85

MS. DELANEY AND STAFF

SP81 THE PREACHER AS COMMUNICATOR

Exploration in the verbal, tonal, and kinesic aspects of communication in relation to one's values and purposes in the tasks of ministry, especially preaching and worship. Selected readings, projects, and reports in the areas of interpretative techniques and kinesics. Limited to Th.M. candidates except by special permission of the instructor.
First Semester, 1984-85 MR. BEENERS

SP82 COMMUNICATION IN PREACHING AND WORSHIP

Extensive work in situational speech as related to tasks of ministry. Problems and challenges in special occasion speaking with concern for audience analysis, content, and delivery. Experience in verbal, tonal, and kinesic areas of communication. Special readings and reports. Limited to Th.M. candidates except by special permission of the instructor.
Second Semester, 1984-85 MR. BEENERS

PH.D. SEMINARS

The following seminars are designed for Ph.D. candidates in the field of Christian Education, Theology and Communication in Preaching, and Pastoral Theology, and provide seminar credit in any of these areas of specialization. Enrollment is limited strictly to Ph.D. candidates. Ph.D. candidates in departments other than Practical Theology may enroll upon permission of the instructor in the seminar.

DS80 THEOLOGY AND COMMUNICATION

Advanced study of human communication dynamics in theological perspective. Theological values and claims will be interpreted in relation to behavior in communication environments. Communication in well-defined contexts (preaching, worship, education, administration, counseling) will be analyzed as pastoral intervention in reality-structuring experiences. The focus of the seminar is functional and dynamic, but not technological.
Second Semester, 1985-86 MR. NICHOLS

DS83,-84 METHODOLOGY AND PROJECT SEMINAR IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

A seminar utilizing the perspectival approach and exploring ways of relating the findings and methods of cognate secular disciplines with theology. Most of the work proceeds by critical discussion of project presentations by students.
First Semester, 1984-85 MR. MASSA AND MS. BROWN
Second Semester, 1984-85 MESSRS. CAPPS AND NICHOLS

DS85 SALVATION AND HEALTH

Examination and analysis of the concepts of salvation and health as they refer to potential human wholeness from different perspectives, and of the issues involved in relating and distinguishing these concepts. Each student is encouraged to work toward a constructive position regarding the relationship of these concepts, taking into account the various dimensions of the problem.
First Semester, 1984-85 MR. LAPSLEY

DS90 HISTORY AND THEORY OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

History of Christian education from New Testament times to the present; major theories of Christian education; the process of Christian education theory construction.

First Semester, 1985-86

MR. DYKSTRA

DS92 THEOLOGY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Advanced consideration of developmental psychology. Such major aspects of human development as morality, identity, language, and cognition are examined from interdisciplinary perspectives relevant to Christian education, preaching, and pastoral theology.

Second Semester, 1984-85

MR. LODER

RELIGION AND SOCIETY PROGRAM

Professors: J. E. LODER, C. C. WEST.

Guest Professors: M. M. THOMAS, P. N. WILLIAMS, G. WINTER.

Assistant Professors: L. G. LIVEZEY, C. A. RYERSON.

THE PROGRAM in Religion and Society engages students and professors in the work of scholarship, teaching and social praxis, involving a critique of ideology and a renewal of vision and strategy for socio-political transformation.

At all academic levels, but particularly in connection with Ph.D. studies, four major dimensions of theological and critical inquiry shape the work of the field.

1. Historical praxis forms the context for student projects in this field. An important aspect of this historical praxis is the place of religious institutions in social and political transformation within various traditions.
2. Theological interpretation brings the heritage of a people under critical inquiry, exploring religious phenomena, Christian and non-Christian, including the religious implications of secular philosophy.
3. The human sciences play a crucial role in the discipline of religious social ethics. Students are expected to develop an understanding of various perspectives, concepts, and methods in these sciences in ways appropriate to their level of investigation.
4. Christian ethics in interaction with other traditions is central to the field, exploring issues of freedom, justice and peace.

Candidates for the M.Div., Th.M., and Ph.D. degrees may pursue concentrations in this area under the supervision of the Committee on Religion and Society. Courses appropriate to the concerns of Religion and Society, as listed below, are offered by several of the academic divisions of the Seminary. Field education also may contribute to such studies on the M.Div. level.

PROGRAM IN ECUMENICS, MISSION, AND HISTORY OF RELIGIONS

Professors: S. H. MOFFETT, C. C. WEST.

Guest Professors: M. M. THOMAS, G. WINTER.

Assistant Professor: C. A. RYERSON.

THE ECUMENICS, Mission, and History of Religions program aims to widen the horizons of preparation for the ministry with the interdisciplinary inquiry into the challenges and implications of the worldwide mission of the Christian faith. All three segments of the program are integrally interrelated. No one part can be studied in isolation and all demand attention to the cultural and religious, social and political, and geographical contexts of mission.

The program relates to all academic levels as a subsection of the History Department. On the M.Div. level, in addition to the course offerings listed below, field education may include approved internships in mission at home or abroad, with course credit where appropriate. In Ph.D. studies, the program offers six fields of comprehensive emphasis:

History of Christian missions

Study of one or more non-Christian religions

Critical study of the methods and issues of social, cultural, and political inquiry across cultural, social, and political lines

Christian theology in mission context

Christian social ethics as a dimension of the church's mission

The ecumenical dimension of Christianity, historical and contemporary

Courses appropriate to a concentration in this area include:

SPECIAL COURSES

In cases of demonstrated need, a qualified student may make application through an instructor to enroll for a special course in a subject falling within that instructor's field of specialization. Such a course may be given, under the provisions outlined in the following paragraphs and with the approval of the Curriculum Committee, provided that coverage of the same material cannot reasonably be arranged as part of a regular course during the remainder of the student's period of residence. Special courses may not normally be used to fulfill departmental distribution requirements. Courses so arranged must be reported to the Office of the Registrar in accordance with the regulations governing the selection of catalogued electives. Special courses made available by the Seminary are of two types:

Tutorials—classes normally arranged to meet the needs of one student, but on occasion more than one, and involving extensive reading of relevant literature, periodic conferences with the instructor, and a concluding examination or project.

Research Courses—classes arranged on an individual basis to meet the needs of qualified students, and involving independent research on a defined topic and the preparation of a substantial paper.

In the interest of equity, a candidate for the M.Div. or the M.A. degree ordinarily may not carry more than one special course during any given semester. An M.Div. candidate is limited to four such courses during his or her total program; a candidate for the M.A. degree, three special courses. The privilege of enrolling for these courses normally is extended only to persons in candidacy for a degree at the Seminary. University regulations do not permit members of that Faculty to offer special courses to Seminary students.

Since special courses are offered over and above an instructor's normal academic load, members of the Faculty ordinarily may not give more than two such courses during any semester without the approval of the Academic Dean. Special courses during the summer months are discouraged. Where a tutorial is offered to more than two or three students, approval of the department and the Curriculum Committee is required.

Senior theses are not considered to be research courses and continue to be encouraged in appropriate cases.

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY WORKSHOPS

WORKSHOPS in the Doctor of Ministry program are designed to provide the context for a critical assessment of the candidate's patterns of ministerial practice. Discussions, involving twelve candidates and two members of the Faculty, are based upon prepared reports dealing with four focal areas or aspects of ministry. These areas, which also provide the organizing principle for the action-reflection examinations, are (a) theological and ethical aspects of ministry, (b) caring and restorative aspects of ministry, (c) communicative and educative aspects of ministry, and (d) organizational and administrative aspects of ministry.

Commuter workshops, held for two consecutive fall semesters, meet for approximately six hours each week. Intensive workshops, designed for candidates who live beyond commuting distance, meet daily during two periods each three weeks in length during two consecutive summers. The organization of these sessions, through the summer of 1985, is as follows:

SUMMER 1984

Workshop W: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: D. E. Capps and H. A. Koops

Workshop X: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: J. N. Lapsley and P. D. Miller

Workshop Y: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: G. W. Hanson and L. C. Willard

Workshop Z: Meeting Daily for Three Weeks

Faculty Personnel: J. R. Nichols and B. C. Ollenburger

SUMMER 1985

Faculty Personnel to be announced.

FIELD EDUCATION

Director: HENDRICKS S. DAVIS.

Assistant Director: KATHY J. NELSON.

M.A. Director: FRED A. GARDNER.

THE FIELD EDUCATION program is an integral part of the theological curriculum. Students under the supervision of pastors and specialists work at a variety of assignments in particular churches and institutions in the interest of developing (1) a habit of working in the context of disciplined theological reflection; (2) a growing understanding of the church and its ministry; (3) a life style congruent with the gospel; (4) sound ways of relating to different persons; and (5) competencies which are professional in the sense of including mastery of skills with knowledge of the theoretical bases of each.

Assignments are available in churches and institutions of every type in an area that includes two huge metropolitan centers, smaller cities and towns, and rural neighborhoods. A Teaching Church Program offers a high level of supervision for a hundred students each year, under the guidance of pastors who participate in monthly seminars. Prison ministries and other specialized activities enlist a substantial group of participants.

Summer assignments are available in churches and church projects, in national parks, and in clinical training.

M.DIV. REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the other requirements, an approved program of field education, which in the judgment of the Director of Field Education meets the needs of the individual student, is required for graduation.

A minimum program shall include both of the following: (a) A year of satisfactory work in a church under approved supervision. This requirement may be met in two semesters of weekends in a church, or by an internship year. (b) A period of satisfactory work in a field of service appropriate to the student's particular purposes and in accord with the goals, functions, and principles of field education. This requirement may be met in two semesters of weekends, one summer, or an internship year. (An internship year may be used to fulfill either requirement a or b but not both.)

Any variation from this program must be with the counsel and approval of the Director of Field Education, who shall decide whether the student's work meets the graduation requirements.

Reports on field education activity are required on January 15 and May 15; summer reports on September 15. All remunerative work is to be reported to the field education office. If this involves over twenty hours a week, the Director of Field Education may recommend to the Faculty a reduction in hours or a four-year program.

M.Div. candidates are required to register for field education during each semester of participation, according to the procedures that govern the selection of academic courses. A grade of S (satisfactory) or U (unsatisfactory) is recorded at the conclusion of each term. Registration shall be for one of the following:

FE01,-02 PARISH FIELD EDUCATION

Supervised ministry in the local church. Placement may be in either teaching or non-teaching church settings. Students will have experience in communication, administration, and caring aspects of ministry; opportunity for reflection and evaluation will be provided by supervisors. The sequence FE01,-02 (or FE05,-06) must be successfully completed at least once in every student's M.Div. program. Taken concurrent with academic work.

FE03,-04 SPECIALIZED FIELD EDUCATION

Supervised ministry in institutional or organizational settings. Placement may be in prisons, hospitals, nursing homes, advocacy organizations. Students will engage in a variety of ministry opportunities under the supervision of a chaplain or program director; occasions for reflection and evaluation will be provided by supervisors. Taken concurrent with academic work; sequence may be repeated.

FE05,-06 PARISH INTERNSHIP

Extended supervised ministry in the local church. Placement may be for nine, twelve, or fifteen months in settings across the country; some international opportunities. Students will engage in a broad spectrum of ministry with considerable time to explore areas of particular interest. Normally taken after the middle year; an academic program may not be pursued concurrently.

FE07,-08 SPECIALIZED INTERNSHIP

Extended supervised ministry in institutional or organizational settings. Placement may be for nine, twelve, or fifteen months; opportunities have included university chaplaincies, advocacy organizations, and clinical pastoral education programs. Students will engage in all aspects of specialized ministry with considerable time to explore vocational interests. Normally taken after the middle year; an academic program may not be pursued concurrently.

FE09 SUMMER PARISH FIELD EDUCATION

Intensive supervised ministry in the local church. Minimum of ten weeks of full time work required. Students will have experience in communication, administration, and caring aspects of ministry. In some settings the student may provide supply services during the vacation or study leave of the pastor. May not be taken concurrent with academic work.

FE10 SPECIALIZED SUMMER FIELD EDUCATION

Intensive supervised ministry in institutional or organizational settings. Minimum of ten weeks of full time work required. Placement may be in camp and conference centers, clinical pastoral education programs, and social or neighborhood organizations. May not be taken concurrent with academic work.

M.A. REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the other requirements for the M.A. degree in Christian education, a program of field education is required for graduation. The program shall include the following: (a) An initial field education experience, ordinarily undertaken in the first year, in a church under approved supervision. (b) Either in the summer between the first and second years or during the second year, work in a field of service appropriate to the student's particular purposes and involving the student in supervised leadership.

INTERNSHIPS

The intern program in field education permits an M.Div. candidate who has completed two years of theological education to devote a year to full time in-service training for the ministry, before completing his or her academic course. Internship positions include student pastorates, assistantships, chaplaincies, and other responsibilities. Some internship programs involve work abroad. Intern training programs must be approved by the Director of Field Education and are under his supervision, in cooperation with the employing organization. The intern is considered a regular student in the Seminary during his or her program.

GRADUATE INTERNSHIPS

Opportunities for in-service and clinical training are available to M.Div. graduates who wish to continue practical training for the ministry under supervision. Opportunities for a variety of types of ministry are available and have proved to be a helpful way for younger graduates to begin their vocational work. The Director of Field Education will aid and counsel students in arranging such programs. Graduate interns are not regarded as students in the Seminary during the internship.

LIBRARY RESOURCES

Robert E. Speer Library

Librarian: CHARLES WILLARD.

Associate Librarian for Technical Services: JAMES S. IRVINE.

Cataloguers: JULIE E. DAWSON, SHARON TAYLOR.

Reference Librarian: KATHERINE SKREBUTENAS.

Circulation Librarian: GWENDA LITTLE.

THE LIBRARY building, opened in 1957 and named in honor of Robert E. Speer, has space for approximately 400,000 volumes and 350 readers. In addition to its main reading room, which seats about 115 persons, there are 44 carrel tables in the stack area, unassigned and open to all readers. Other facilities include a graduate study room where advanced students may keep their books, several small seminar rooms, and a smoking lounge. Ten private study rooms are reserved for the use of visiting scholars.

The Collection

Speer Library offers substantial resources for theological study and research at all levels. It now contains over 365,000 catalogued books, pamphlets, and microfilms, including valuable portions of the libraries of Dr. Ashbel Green, Professor John Breckenridge, Dr. William Buell Sprague, Mr. Samuel Agnew, Professor J. Addison Alexander, Dr. John M. Krebs, Dr. Alexander Balloch Grosart, Professor William Henry Green, Professor Samuel Miller, Professor Benjamin B. Warfield, and Dr. Louis F. Benson. It currently receives over a thousand journals, annual reports of church bodies and learned societies, bulletins, transactions, and periodically issued indices, abstracts, and bibliographies.

While popular works are not neglected, a major objective of the library is to acquire comprehensively the basic works of western and, in translation, eastern religious traditions. Primary sources are represented both by original, early editions or reprints and by modern critical editions. The strength of the library is maintained by the acquisition, on a standing-order basis, of all major sets, new critical editions, and scholarly monograph series currently published in the main fields of theological study.

Several special collections should be mentioned. The Louis F. Benson Collection of Hymnology, numbering over ten thousand volumes, provides superior resources for the study of all fields of American and foreign hymnology. The Grosart Library of Puritan and Nonconformist Theology, acquired in 1885 and added to regularly, now contains over five thousand volumes. The Sprague Collection is an unusually large collection of early American theological pamphlets. Over two thousand volumes and three thousand pamphlets dealing with the controversy regarding the proper form of baptism are in the Agnew Baptist Collection. The Alumni Alcove, supported substantially by the donations of authors, preserves their published works as a testimony to the influential position of Seminary graduates and Faculty in theological and general literature.

Support

The library is supported by an annual appropriation and by income from restricted endowment funds totaling $2,448,541 from Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, Mr. John C. Green, the Reverend Samuel M. Hamill, Mrs. R. L. Kennedy, Mary Cheves Dulles, Professor Theodore W. Hunt, Dr. Louis F. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Egner, Miss Mabel Gillespie, Mrs. Helen M. T. Locke, Mrs. John F. B. Carruthers, Mr. William L. Ulyat, Mrs. Elizabeth Parke Ballantine, Dr. Katherine Finney and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Finney, Mr. John P. Orendorff, Mr. John G. Buchanan, Miss Margaret I. Vaughan, Mrs. Alice M. Newberry, Mrs. Charlotte W. Newcombe, as well as other alumni and friends.

Additional Facilities

Photocopies of library material in the public domain and, within the provisions of the principle of fair use, of copyrighted material may be made on coin- or key-operated copier machines. The staff also can make arrangements for microfilms of library books and photographs of plates.

Graduates of the Seminary are entitled to borrow books by mail. Further information about this service may be obtained from the library.

In accordance with the terms of an agreement between the Seminary and the University, students of the Seminary are granted free use of the University library, subject to its rules.

Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room

Faculty Supervisor: FRED A. GARDNER.

Director: PAUL A. KRESS.

The Reading Room, located on the first floor of Tennent Hall, makes available a wide range of literature in Christian education and resources in audio-visual aids. Although intentionally limited in general reference materials, it contains specialized reference works in education and Christian education. The collection includes representative sets of over ninety standard curriculums, more than 4,000 volumes of special contemporary interest, and approximately 100 journals that are received on a regular basis. Other resources include tapes, filmstrips, records, pictures, posters, simulation games, and multi-media titles. Access is primarily through a card catalogue. The Reading Room also publishes lists of newly acquired books, catalogues of the audio-visual collection, and lists of journals received by subscription.

The following equipment is available for minimal rental charges: one tape recorder, one cassette tape recorder, a carousel slide projector, a film strip projector, one record player, and a large portable screen.

Hours for the Reading Room are announced at the beginning of each semester.

Speech Department

Director: W. J. BEENERS.

Director of Instructional Media: WAYNE R. WHITELOCK.

The Speech Department, located on the third floor of Stuart Hall, maintains a collection of approximately 6,000 tape recordings of lectures, sermons, and other campus events, preserving in their original form many significant theological presentations.

A catalogue of recorded materials is available and descriptive listings from major film distributors are kept on file. Recorded materials are available for private listening without charge; copies of many selections may be requested at minimal cost.

The Speech Studios' technical staff provides instructional media consultation and services to the Faculty and academic community. Resource materials and equipment are available for authorized activities on a reservation basis.

When the Seminary is in session, the departmental offices are open Monday through Friday, 8:30–4:30 p.m.

ADDITIONAL DEPARTMENTS AND SERVICES

THE SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

PURSUANT to the action of the Presbyterian General Assembly of 1941, which recommended that colleges of Christian education belonging to the Presbyterian Church should become related to seminaries or colleges, negotiations were entered into between the Trustees of Princeton Theological Seminary and the Trustees of Tennent College of Christian Education in Philadelphia. Following these negotiations the Trustees of Tennent College decided to close the latter institution and to make over its assets in trust to Princeton Theological Seminary. The Seminary, on its part, agreed to carry forward the work of Tennent College upon a graduate level, and to perpetuate the name of Tennent upon the campus of Princeton Theological Seminary and in the Seminary's annual catalogue. The School of Christian Education was inaugurated in September 1944, when a group of young women with college degrees was admitted for the first year of study. In 1974, the Roman Catholic Diocese of Trenton entered into an agreement with the Seminary whereby the program of the School of Christian Education is used for the professional training of religious educators.

PROFESSOR F. A. GARDNER
Christian Education

The two-year course embraces basic studies in biblical literature, theology, church history, ecumenics, and education, in addition to special cultural and technical studies designed to give students the most complete preparation possible for teaching the Christian religion in church or secular schools. The degree of Master of Arts (M.A.) is conferred upon those who successfully complete the course. In exceptional cases students will be admitted for a shorter period who do not intend to take the full course for a degree, but who desire to equip themselves more fully for some task related to Christian education in which they have been engaged, or desire to engage, at home or abroad.

All inquiries relating to the School of Christian Education should be directed to the Office of Admissions, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542.

The Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room

The Charles G. Reigner Education Reading Room is located in Tennent Hall. Many of its general reference volumes were gifts to the School of Christian Education from the library of Tennent College of Christian Education. Charles G. Reigner, a Baltimore publisher, was for many years its benefactor. The Reading Room provides additional study space near the education classrooms and the married student apartments on the Tennent campus, and makes available to students and surrounding churches a wide range of literature in Christian education and resources in audio-visual aids. Consult page 133 for additional information concerning the resources of this facility.

THE SECRETARY OF THE SEMINARY

Alumni Relations

The Secretary of the Seminary maintains contact with 9,114 alumni, 801 of whom reside outside the United States. The Alumni News, which goes to alumni in all fifty states and in eighty-three other countries, reports class news, marriages, births, and deaths. Special articles highlight events on the campus and outstanding newsworthy activities of our graduates around the world.

The alumni body consists of all persons who matriculated at Princeton Theological Seminary, both those who received degrees and those who pursued special studies or did not complete a full program. All alumni are included in the Princeton Seminary Alumni/ae Association. They receive the quarterly Alumni News, the Princeton Seminary Bulletin, the annual calendar for the Center of Continuing Education, the annual Alumni Roll Call, and other special mailings. There are no membership dues. The Alumni/ae Association holds its annual meeting on Alumni Day, the day before commencement.

The officers of the Association serve a two-year term. Those persons currently serving as officers are: President, Charles C. Martin, 66B, of Wilmington, Delaware; Vice President, Dean E. Foose, 64B, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Secretary, Paul S. Stavrakos, 69M, of Wheaton, Illinois.

Alumni chapters have been formally organized in many cities in the United States. Meetings of these chapters, and of alumni in several other cities where chapters are in process of formation, provide an occasion for fellowship and dialogue between graduates and members of the Faculty and administration.

Placement

The Secretary of the Seminary seeks to interview all Seniors as they prepare for graduation. He assists all who need help in placement in parish ministry, chaplaincies, and other church-related occupations, and counsels with pastors and committees regarding candidates for positions as pastors, associate and assistant pastors, and directors of Christian education.

Office of Seminary Relations

The Office of Seminary Relations interprets the life and work of the Seminary to its graduates, to the church, and to the general public. Opportunities for supply preaching and speaking engagements for students and faculty are coordinated by the Office. Major events in the Princeton community are highlighted for the Seminary community and the public is kept informed of the many lectures, workshops, and services on the Seminary campus open to them.

All communication with the news media about the Seminary is coordinated through the Office of Seminary Relations as are requests for information and interpretative materials from the judicatories of the church.

The Office maintains placement files for former students who seek relocation, and works with the Secretary of the Seminary and the Alumni/ae Association Executive Council in developing a network of active chapters across the country.

The Director of Seminary Relations works with the Manager of Publications to assure that the Alumni News is a high quality publication that keeps alumni/ae informed of the variety and richness of life on campus and the ministry of Princeton's graduates.

THEOLOGICAL BOOK AGENCY

The Theological Book Agency is located in the basement of Stuart Hall. In addition to providing the textbooks for all Seminary courses, the store maintains a wide selection of about 7,000 titles representing all fields of theological scholarship, as well as selected other fields related to ministry.

The bookstore is under the supervision of a Faculty committee which recommends general operating policy.

All books are sold at 10% off the list price, with more expensive volumes sometimes receiving higher discounts. The store offers a variety of services including special ordering, mailing of books, out of print searches, and charge accounts.

During the academic year several events are sponsored, including author signings, readings, and special sales.

The bookstore is open from 1:30 until 6:00 p.m. on Monday, and from 1:30 until 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday through Friday, during the entire year.

ROOM AND BOARD DURING REGULAR YEAR

Annual Charges for Single Students

Room and board $2,410.00

A description of facilities is found on page 154. Dormitories are open for regular occupancy the Monday preceding the beginning of classes through noon on the day after commencement. Dormitory occupancy will not be available during the summer months except for regularly enrolled summer students.

Charges for Tennent, Roberts, and Wilson Apartments

One-Bedroom Units$ 215.00

Two-Bedroom Units 270.00

Three-Bedroom Units 325.00

A description of facilities is found on page 155.

Board Service

All quoted rates that include board privileges are subject to change.

Board payment covers three meals a day (two meals on Sunday) during periods when the Seminary is in session. Services under the plan begin with breakfast on Monday, September 24, 1984, and conclude with the noon meal on Friday, May 24, 1985. These services are suspended during the following periods of recess:

Thanksgiving: closed all day November 22.

Christmas Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, December 21, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, January 7.

Inter-Semester Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, January 25, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, February 4.

Spring Recess: suspended after the noon meal on Friday, March 15, and resumed for breakfast on Monday, March 25.

During certain of the periods when regular board services are suspended, the cafeteria may be open on a cash basis. In general, however, students are expected to make their own arrangements for meals when the Seminary is not in session. Fire regulations do not permit cooking in the residence area of the dormitories.

Students who are absent from the Seminary at least two full days each weekend on field education assignments certified by the Office of Field Education will receive a credit of $13.00 for each weekend during which the board plan is in effect.

Students seeking to be excused for medical reasons from board in the dining hall must provide documentation in the form of a letter from a medical doctor citing the medical problem and diet prescribed. The letter should be sent to the Business Office.

Students receiving grant assistance from the Seminary are required to live in Seminary accommodations, if available, unless excused by the Financial Aid Officer.

ROOM AND BOARD DURING SUMMER SESSION

Facilities for single students are available throughout the 1985 summer session. Charges for room and board will be announced. As a general aid in planning, room and board costs for the 1984 summer session were (per three week period) $252.00 for air conditioned accommodations and $222.00 for other accommodations. Linen service is not included in these charges. Board provides three meals a day, Monday through Friday. There is no board service on weekends.

PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS

Charges for tuition, fees, board, and room are due and payable on or before the first day of each semester. Rental for Stockton Street and Charlotte Rachel Wilson accommodations is payable monthly, due in advance on the first business day of each month. Payment may be made by mail, or in person at the cashier's window adjacent to the Business Office in the Administration Building.

A handling charge of $5.00 will be assessed for any check payment returned for insufficient funds.

The special arrangement with Princeton University for the use of McCosh Infirmary and Firestone Library is possible through responsible attention to bills incurred by Seminary students. In order to assure continued co-operation, the Seminary will settle such accounts not paid within 60 days and will apply such charges to the student's account with the Seminary.

Payment Plans

In the case of charges payable at the beginning of the semester, the student may elect either (a) to make payment in full before the first class day of the semester, in which instance no service fees will be assessed, or (b) to pay the charges in four equalized monthly installments. During the first semester these installments are due on the first business day of October, November, December, and January; during the second semester, on the first business day of February, March, April, and May. Where the deferred payment option (b) is selected, there will be added to the total semester charges a service fee of $25.00. The payment plan for D.Min. students is outlined on page 139.

An additional service charge at a periodic rate of 1.5% per month (which represents an annual rate of 18%) will be assessed on all unpaid accounts.

Where monthly rentals are overdue, a service charge of $5.00 will be assessed on the fifteenth day of each month.

A student's preliminary registration for a new semester will be cancelled unless the Registrar receives certification from the Business Office that all accounts for earlier semesters have been satisfied and that payment in full or a deferred payment agreement for new charges has been received. Priority for enrollment in classes with limited registration will be lost where accounts from a previous semester remain delinquent. No degree may be awarded by the Seminary or transcript issued unless the student has met all financial obligations to the institution.

REFUNDS

If (a) a student withdraws from the Seminary while a semester is in progress, having secured the approval of the President or his designated representative for the withdrawal, or (b) a part-time student reduces his or her academic load after the first class day of a semester, having notified the Registrar, charges for the classes discontinued, and for room and board before withdrawal, will be assessed as follows:

1. Tuition:

During first 11 class days of semester	20%
During next 14 class days of semester	50%
Thereafter	100%

2. Room and Board [weekly rates, subject to change] $75.00

No portion of any fee is refunded. If the withdrawal is without the approval of the President, the student is liable for the full semester's tuition.

If the student who withdraws from the Seminary has received a financial aid award from the institution, consideration should be given to the special provision under "Grants" on page 144.

If a student withdraws from the Summer Session after classes have begun, he or she shall be responsible for the full tuition charges. If withdrawal occurs before the beginning of classes, a charge of $75 will be assessed. If he or she has been living in one of the campus dormitories, room and board will be pro-rated.

Should the withdrawal be occasioned by confirmed illness that prevents continuation in the program, further adjustments may be made in the assessment of tuition.

FINANCING A SEMINARY PROGRAM

Basic charges for a single student enrolled in a full-time degree program, including tuition, comprehensive fee, and the cost of room and board, will total approximately $5,635 annually. A single student will find that his or her other expenses during the academic year, exclusive of vacation expenditures and transportation, will be about $1,070.

Married students will find that living costs, in addition to basic tuition and comprehensive fee, vary according to their housing arrangements, food purchases, and personal habits. Students with families should contact the Director of Housing regarding living accommodations.

Seminary financial assistance is granted on the basis of demonstrated need. To assist the Seminary in establishing the individual degree of need, students are asked to submit, on a form provided by the Seminary, an itemized statement of their financial situation, including a budget showing available resources and anticipated expenses. The Director of Student Financial Aid will consult with each such applicant to insure that the factors of self-support, careful utilization of savings, parental assistance, Seminary grants, and educational loans are kept in proper balance. The Seminary will seek to assist each student to establish a financial program that protects him or her from an undue burden of remunerative employment, anxiety about finances, or excessive indebtedness.

Self-Support

It is assumed that a Seminary student will make every effort toward self-support consonant with the demands of his or her program of studies. If it is found that resources will be insufficient for the period of theological study, such financial needs will be a necessary consideration in the development of summer plans. Students will find that positions of service, secured through the Office of Field Education during both the summer and the academic year as part of the educational program, will also provide remuneration.

Other sources of income include employment in the Seminary dining hall, library, book agency, offices, and other on-campus positions. In addition, the Office of Student Financial Aid assists students in locating regular or occasional work in the Princeton area, and assists student spouses in securing employment.

Grants

Applicants for financial aid are considered for grant assistance, regardless of nationality or denominational affiliation. Seminary grants, within the limits of available funds, vary in amount depending upon the student's overall financial situation. Grants are awarded without obligation of repayment, subject to the student's maintaining "satisfactory academic progress" as defined for his or her program. Should a student withdraw prior to the end of a semester, grant assistance will be subject to reduction based upon the period in attendance.

Loan Funds

Students of the former United Presbyterian Church who are registered with or under the care of a presbytery for a church vocation, or who are candidates preparing for service in one of the boards or agencies of the denomination, may apply for loan assistance from the Vocation Agency of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). In some instances those already engaged in a church vocation with the Presbyterian Church also may apply. Application is made through the Office of Student Financial Aid.

Other denominations, including the former Presbyterian Church in the United States and the United Methodist Church, also make funds available to Princeton Seminary students preparing to enter ministerial or other professional service in the denomination.

A limited number of National Direct Student Loans are also available to students eligible under federal guidelines who also maintain "satisfactory academic progress." In addition, the Office of Student Financial Aid is the certifying office for State Guaranteed and Auxiliary Student Loan applications. Local banks and savings and loan associations normally make such funds available to students.

All such loan funds carry interest charges of from 5% to 12%. Repayment, and the assessment of interest, do not begin until the student has completed full-time study, except for the auxiliary program for which interest is payable from date of loan.

Additional Information

More detailed written information from the Office of Student Financial Aid and Employment concerning aid programs administered by the Seminary is available upon request. This information includes: appropriate application forms and procedures; criteria for selecting recipients, for determining award amounts and limits, and for initial and continuing eligibility; payment arrangements, current direct costs, and estimates of other typical costs; refund policy; aid recipient rights and responsibilities.

Also available are selected listings of outside sources of grant and loan assistance, as well as information about non-Seminary employment opportunities in the area.

In addition, as mandated by federal regulations, summaries of student retention at the Seminary and placement and remuneration surveys of graduates are available upon request.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY CANDIDATES

Princeton Doctoral Fellowships

Up to four awards may be made annually to first year doctoral students on the basis of demonstrated academic merit and promise of scholarly accomplishment in a chosen field of advanced study. The maximum stipend for a fellow is $6,285.

The George S. Green Fellowship for Doctoral Study in Old Testament

One or two fellowships for doctoral work in Old Testament may be awarded for the first year of study to that Senior in the Master of Divinity program at the Seminary, or that candidate in the Master of Theology program at the Seminary, who is recommended for outstanding academic achievement and scholarly promise by the professors in Old Testament. The maximum stipend for the fellowship is $6,285.

Doctoral Teaching Fellowships

Up to twelve Doctoral Teaching Fellowships are awarded annually. The remuneration of a full initial fellowship is $2,768 and includes payment of the candidate's tuition charges or continuation fee, and the balance in cash. In addition, a scholarship award of $1,525 for a candidate enrolled for classes on a full-time basis, or $25 for a candidate not so enrolled, is granted. For the remuneration the holder undertakes to assist one or more members of the Faculty for a total of 450 hours for the academic year. Fellowships are ordinarily, but not exclusively, awarded to applicants who have completed the first year of doctoral study. Renewed full fellowship appointments include remuneration of $2,970.

Doctoral Study Grants

Grant awards are available to doctoral candidates who demonstrate financial need. These awards are reserved for students who do not qualify for the fellowships described above.

Applicants and candidates in all programs should address inquiries concerning financial assistance to:

Director of Student Financial Aid
Princeton Theological Seminary

Princeton, New Jersey 08542

SENIOR CLASS FELLOWSHIPS

Fellowships have been established in the Seminary for the pursuit of advanced study in theology. In 1879 Mr. George S. Green of Trenton, N.J., founded a fellowship for the encouragement of advanced study in Old Testament Literature. In 1889 the alumni of the Seminary contributed a fund for a fellowship in New Testament studies. In 1891 Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, of New York City, established the Archibald Robertson Scholarship. In 1900 Professor William Henry Green, D.D., LL.D., by bequest provided a fund for fellowship purposes. In 1905 by bequest of Mrs. Mary W. Winthrop, of New York City, the Gelston-Winthrop Memorial Fund was created and from this fund an annual appropriation was made by the Trustees for the maintenance of three fellowships. In 1943 a fellowship was established on the Samuel Robinson Foundation. The fellowships were reorganized in 1945 by the Trustees of the Seminary and several fellowships established upon these foundations with an honorarium of $2,000 each. Fellowships are available in Old Testament, New Testament, the Department of History, the Department of Theology, the Department of Practical Theology, and the Program in Religion and Society.

Fellowship Regulations

The fellowships are awarded in accordance with the following rules:

1. In order to become a candidate for a fellowship, a student must be a member of the Senior class who has been in residence in the Seminary as a member of the Middle class.

2. The candidate must present for regular academic credit a thesis in a specified field, which shall also be his or her area of Senior studies, and pass such examination as may be required. A copy of the thesis must be delivered at the Office of Academic Dean on or before May 1.

3. If the May 1 deadline falls on a weekend, the thesis shall be due at 9:00 a.m. on the Monday next following. This deadline may not be extended for any reason.

4. The fellowship award will be made by the Faculty, upon recommendation of the department or program concerned, and will be announced on or about May 15. The Faculty in all instances reserves the right not to grant a fellowship during a particular year, if in the judgment of the readers no thesis in the area qualifies for this special recognition.

5. A student who submits a thesis in competition for a fellowship, whether or not he or she is successful in the competition, will receive regular academic credit for the work, provided it meets the usual requirements for a thesis in that Senior studies area.

6. A fellow shall pursue studies, principally in the subject in which the fellowship has been awarded, conducting the work either in this Seminary or in some other approved graduate institution. He or she shall submit a program to the Registrar for approval and subsequently shall make to him periodic reports of progress. A fellow shall study for a full academic year, which year shall be the next ensuing after appointment. Permission to postpone study requires Seminary approval. Such request shall be submitted to the Registrar. A fellowship must be used within five academic years.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN OLD TESTAMENT

Established on the George S. Green Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in Old Testament may be awarded to that Senior student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in this field and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN NEW TESTAMENT

Established on the Alumni Foundation, the Archibald Robertson Scholarship and the William Henry Green Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in New Testament may be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in this field and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN HISTORY

The Senior Fellowship in History may be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

The Senior Fellowship in Theology may be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

Established on the Samuel Robinson Foundation

The Senior Fellowship in Practical Theology may be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in a division of this department and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN RELIGION AND SOCIETY

The Senior Fellowship in Religion and Society may be awarded to that student who presents the best Senior studies thesis in this program area and who qualifies under the fellowship regulations outlined above.

The Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Ministry

Through the generosity of an anonymous friend there was established for the year 1984-1985 a fellowship for overseas study, to be awarded to an immediate graduate of the Seminary who is a candidate in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and who is dedicated to the parish ministry. Field education performance and academic excellence, including performance on the ordination examinations of the Presbyterian Church, are considered by the Faculty in making the award.

FELLOWSHIPS AT JERUSALEM AND ATHENS

Inasmuch as Princeton Theological Seminary makes an annual contribution to the American School of Oriental Studies at Jerusalem, and to the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, qualified students can sometimes be recommended in competition for annual fellowships at each of these schools. For further details, students who are interested should consult with Mr. Meyer regarding studies at Athens or with Mr. Roberts regarding studies at Jerusalem. By virtue of an association with the Hebrew Union College Biblical and Archaeological School in Jerusalem, it also is possible for qualified students to be recommended for research fellowships in Israel.

PRIZES AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Year by year a considerable number of prizes are offered for special work or attainments. The recipients of such prizes must have completed creditably all the studies of the year.

Except where an essay is required, the inclusion of a prize in the descriptive paragraphs below does not constitute an assurance of its availability during the year 1984-1985. Essays submitted for prizes must be signed with an assumed name, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the author, and presented at the Office of Professional Studies on or before May 1.

GRADUATE STUDENTS, SENIORS, MIDDLERS, JUNIORS

The Samuel Robinson Foundation Prizes

By the generosity and vision of a Presbyterian layman, Mr. Samuel Robinson, a considerable sum of money has been donated to Princeton Seminary to stimulate interest in the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Believing, upon the ground of his personal experience, that there is no single statement of Christian doctrine more admirably suited than the Westminster Shorter Catechism to challenge the thought of young people upon the basic truths of the Christian religion, the donor has founded a number of prizes and a fellowship.

For the year 1984-1985 up to thirty-three prizes of $150.00 each will be awarded, for which Juniors, Middlers, Seniors, and Graduate students may try, provided they have not previously received a Samuel Robinson Prize.

The basis of awarding of prizes shall be both an oral examination on the text and a written examination on the text and its interpretation.

A student may receive a prize on the Robinson Foundation only once during his or her period of study at the Seminary.

The David Hugh Jones Prize

Through the generosity of former members of the Princeton Seminary Choir, this prize is offered periodically to that student who, in the judgment of the Faculty, has contributed most to the musical life of the Seminary campus.

The Robert Goodlin Prize

Through the generosity of family and friends, this prize has been established in memory of Robert Paul Goodlin, a member of the Senior class of 1961. The award will be made to a worthy student who has displayed a particular interest in clinical training.

The Warwick Foundation Scholarship Grant

This award is given through the Warwick Foundation by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Gemmill in honor of Mr. Gemmill's father, Benjamin McKee Gemmill, D.D., a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary in 1892. The sum of $3,000 is made available to assist a student who requires financial aid.

The Frederick Neumann Prizes

Through the generosity of Dr. Edith Neumann, these prizes have been established in memory of her husband, Dr. Frederick Neumann (1899-1967), and are awarded annually, upon recommendation of the Department of Biblical Studies, to those upcoming Middler or Senior students who have demonstrated the greatest excellence and the most promise in the basic courses in Hebrew and Greek.

SENIOR PRIZES

The Jagow Prizes in Homiletics and Speech

Through the generosity of Mr. Charles H. Jagow there was established in 1977 the Jagow Family Fund. A portion of the income from this endowment provides annually two prizes of $250 each, to be awarded to those students who during the year have made the greatest progress or displayed outstanding achievement in homiletics or speech.

The Mary Long Greir-Hugh Davies Prize in Preaching

In 1923 the Synod of Pennsylvania (Welsh), by a gift to the Trustees of the Seminary, established the Hugh Davies Fund in memory of the Reverend Hugh Davies (1831-1910), an honored minister and historian of the Calvinistic-Methodist Church in Pennsylvania. In 1944 Elizabeth J. Greir left funds to establish one or more prizes in connection with the work of students "for excellence in oratory, in delivery of sermons, addresses, or declamations." The interest derived from these two funds provides annually a prize of $275, to be awarded to that member of the Senior class whose preaching and other forms of oral communication shall be accounted the best in thought, composition, and delivery.

The John Alan Swink Prize in Preaching

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan S. Swink began this prize in memory of their son, John Alan Swink, a member of the Senior class of 1952. The prize was subsequently endowed by John's sister, Mrs. William Sieber, of Wayne, Pennsylvania, and by her husband. One hundred dollars may be given to a member of the Senior class who has shown most improvement in preaching during his or her Seminary course.

The Charles J. Reller Abiding Memorial Fund Award

The Neshaminy-Warwick Presbyterian Church of Hartsville, Pennsylvania, has established this award in memory of Charles J. Reller, a devoted member of that congregation. The award will be made to the student who, during the final year of study on any Seminary program, is judged to have shown during that year "the greatest active Christian concern for his fellow man."

The John T. Galloway Prize in Expository Preaching

The John T. Galloway prize is awarded, upon recommendation of the professors of Homiletics, to a member of the Senior class who throughout his or her years as a Master of Divinity candidate has indicated a special interest and a competence in courses in expository preaching, and who in the preaching class has delivered an unusually good expository sermon.

The John W. Meister Award

Through the generosity of friends, there was established in 1976 an award in memory of the Rev. John William Meister, a distinguished churchman and alumnus in the class of 1941, who at the time of his death was Director of the Council of Theological Seminaries of The United Presbyterian Church. Annually, a prize of $100 is awarded to a member of the graduating class who in the judgment of the Faculty has displayed particular concern and promise for the pastoral ministry of the church.

The Samuel Wilson Blizzard Memorial Award

Through the generosity of former students, colleagues, and friends, there was established in 1976 an award in memory of the Rev. Samuel Wilson Blizzard, Jr., an influential sociologist and alumnus in the class of 1939, who at the time of his death was Maxwell M. Upson Professor of Christianity and Society, Emeritus, in the Seminary. Annually, a prize of $25 is awarded to a member of the graduating class who in the judgment of the Faculty has displayed particular concern and aptitude for the social ministry of the church.

The Friar Club Alumni Award

Through the generosity of the Friar Club alumni, there was established in 1977 the Friar Club Alumni Award, to be given to a member of the Senior class who has contributed significantly to the life of the Seminary community.

The Edler Garnet Hawkins Memorial Award for Scholastic Excellence

Through the generosity of friends and former parishioners, an award has been established in memory of the Reverend Dr. Edler G. Hawkins, Moderator of the One Hundred and Seventy-Sixth General Assembly, who at the time of his death was Professor of Practical Theology and Coordinator of Black Studies in the Seminary. The recipient of this award shall be that Afro-American member of the Senior class who has achieved the highest cumulative grade point average within the range of the first and second fifths of the previous year's graduating class. The grant, in an amount of at least $300, shall take the form of a credit at the Theological Book Agency.

SENIOR AND MIDDLE PRIZES

The Robert L. Maitland Prizes in New Testament Exegesis and English Bible

In 1890 Mr. Alexander Maitland, of New York, founded the Robert L. Maitland prizes in memory of his father. One hundred dollars will be given for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament. The passage for 1984-1985 is: John 6; the Relation of Narrative to Discourse in the Fourth Gospel.

One hundred dollars will be given for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The topic for 1984-1985 is: The Understanding of Material Possessions in Deuteronomy and Luke.

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology

By a gift of Mrs. Archibald Alexander Hodge a prize in Biblical Theology has been established in memory of her father, Dr. John Finley McLaren. The sum of one hundred dollars will be awarded for the best essay on the assigned subject in Biblical Theology.

The subject for 1984-1985 is: The Call of Jeremiah and the Call/Conversion of Paul.

MIDDLE PRIZES

The Benjamin Stanton Prize in Old Testament

In 1890 the Rev. Horace C. Stanton, D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary, founded the Benjamin Stanton prize in memory of his father. One hundred dollars may be awarded to a member of the Middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of Old Testament without submitting a thesis.

The E. L. Wailes Memorial Prize in New Testament

By a gift from the estate of the Rev. George Handy Wailes, D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary in the class of 1897 and a visiting professor in the institution for several years, there was established in 1968 the E. L. Wailes Memorial Prize. Fifty dollars may be awarded to a member of the Middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of New Testament without submitting a thesis.

The Henry Snyder Gehman Award in Old Testament

Through the generosity of the Rev. Dr. Robert E. Hansen, an alumnus of the Seminary in the class of 1943, there has been established the Henry Snyder Gehman Award in Old Testament, honoring a distinguished biblical scholar and member of this Faculty who began service in the Seminary in 1930 and who in 1958 retired as the William Henry Green Professor of Old Testament Literature. Annually a prize of $600 is awarded to a member of the Middle class for excellence in the field of Old Testament without submitting a thesis.

The Archibald Alexander Hodge Prize in Systematic Theology

By a gift of Mrs. A. A. Hodge there was established in 1907 a prize in Systematic Theology in memory of her husband, the Rev. Archibald Alexander Hodge, D.D., LL.D. Fifty dollars is awarded periodically to a member of the Middle class on the basis of excellence in the field of Systematic Theology without submitting a thesis.

The William Tennent Scholarship

The Neshaminy-Warwick Church of Hartsville, Pennsylvania, has established a scholarship of $800 to be awarded to a member of the coming Senior class who has shown special interest and ability in the teaching aspects of the work of the church.

The Edward Howell Roberts Scholarship in Preaching

Through the generosity of Mr. George M. Dunlap, Jr., the Marple Presbyterian Church of Broomall, Pennsylvania, has established an annual scholarship in memory of Edward Howell Roberts who at the time of his death in 1954 was Dean of Princeton Seminary. An award of $600 will be made by the Faculty to a member of the Middle class who shows promise in the field of preaching and who needs financial aid in order to continue study in this area.

The Raymond Irving Lindquist Fellowship in the Parish Ministry

This fellowship, established in honor of the Reverend Dr. Raymond Irving Lindquist, an alumnus of Princeton Theological Seminary in the class of 1933, a Trustee of the Seminary, and minister emeritus of the Hollywood First Presbyterian Church, will be given to a rising Senior each year who has been judged outstanding in his or her gifts and preparation for the parish ministry and is planning a career as a pastor. The fellowship will be awarded by the Faculty on the recommendation of the Director of Field Education.

HOUSING FACILITIES

Single Students

Rooms in the Seminary dormitories are furnished with bedstead, mattress, pillow, bureau, chairs, desk, mirror, and bookcase. Bed linen and blankets for a single bed, and towels, must be provided by the student.

A single student on a regular program is expected to room in one of the Seminary dormitories. Students who occupy Seminary accommodations are required to be enrolled for a full-time program throughout the period of residence and to take their meals in the Campus Center.

A drawing for choice of rooms in the dormitories is held in April, and rooms are assigned to new students upon arrival. A limited number of single rooms ordinarily are available for incoming students with special needs.

Although dormitory accommodations are intended primarily for students enrolled for full academic loads, provision is made on an available space basis for persons registered for part-time studies.

Candidates for the Ph.D. degree may occupy Seminary accommodations for a four-year period only. Candidates for the Th.M. degree ordinarily may occupy Seminary facilities for one year only, during which time they are expected to pursue a full-time program.

Married Students

A large number of unfurnished apartments for married students with or without children is available in the Charlotte Rachel Wilson complex. Each unit contains a living room, dining area, kitchen, bath, and either one or two bedrooms. This group of apartments is located approximately four miles from the Seminary. A smaller number of unfurnished apartments of varying sizes, some with provision for couples with children, is available on the Tennent campus. Seminary apartments are rented to students under a lease arrangement. The period of the lease is from September 1 to August 31, except that students graduating in June will be released from the lease as of June 30.

Although an increasing number of married students will occupy Seminary apartments, some families will find it desirable or necessary to secure accommodations in Princeton or the surrounding area. The Seminary maintains an Office of Housing to assist couples in finding adequate accommodations, although final responsibility for obtaining such accommodations rests with the student. More complete information on lease terms is contained in the Handbook of the Princeton Theological Seminary. All inquiries concerning married student housing, whether Seminary or off-campus, should be addressed to:

CARE OF HEALTH

Students of the Seminary who require medical attention are cared for at the Princeton University Infirmary, which is used jointly with University students on the following terms:

1. Every student who becomes ill or suffers an accident should report at once to the infirmary for examination by a staff physician. If the student is taken ill in his or her room and is unable to go to the infirmary, a physician at the infirmary should be notified immediately. The infirmary telephone (452-3139) is covered 24 hours a day, except during the Christmas and summer holidays.
2. If a student is confined to the infirmary less than one week, no charge is made for board. If confinement is for one week or more, charges will be assessed at current University rates from the time of admission to the infirmary. In the latter case, an adjustment will be made on the Seminary board bill if he or she holds a board and room contract with the Seminary.

3. During the summer before registration, an entering student must submit a health and immunization history and a record of medical examination completed by his or her family or school physician. A standard report form for this purpose is made available by the infirmary through the Office of Admissions of the Seminary.

The infirmary staff includes two psychiatrists and a clinical psychologist who may be consulted by students desiring their assistance.

Participation in the health program of the University infirmary is made possible by an 1893 gift of $3,750, by the Reverend William Lewis Moore of New York City and Mrs. Matthew Baird of Philadelphia, which established an endowment in the infirmary for the benefit of the Seminary in memory of William Lewis Moore, Jr. In 1923 Mr. E. Francis Hyde of New York City contributed $25,000 on behalf of the Seminary toward the construction of a new building. The Seminary, by an annual contribution toward the maintenance of the infirmary, assumes its share of the cost of operation.

To supplement the excellent facilities and program of the McCosh Infirmary, Princeton Seminary has initiated a Medical Benefits Plan, designed to the Seminary's own specifications and needs. This plan has two aims: first, to cover most or all of the usual cost of hospitalization; and second, to provide financial assistance in those cases where other medical expenses rise above the "deductible" out-of-pocket sum of $50.00. Participation in the Plan is mandatory for all full-time students of the Seminary (see the definition in the note at the foot of page 140), and available for dependents of such students. The comprehensive fee coverage includes services of McCosh Infirmary and the Medical Benefits Plan for the student. For an additional charge, coverage of the Plan is extended to dependents, according to a table of rates available from the Business Office upon request.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

ALL REGULARLY admitted students with the exception of doctoral candidates are considered members of the student body of Princeton Theological Seminary for the purpose of conducting the affairs of student government. A Student Council of seven elected members, and a Planning Board with membership drawn from each of the student organizations, establish the budget and direct the programs of the student government.

The primary purposes of the student government, as set forth in its constitution, are: (1) to coordinate student activities and concerns, (2) to represent the students in contacts with the Faculty and administration of the Seminary, and (3) to facilitate student involvement in non-Seminary organizations and interests.

KOINONIA

Koinonia is a society composed of students who are working toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Meetings are held from time to time during the academic year, at which diverse themes of theological interest are discussed.

SPECIAL LECTURESHIPS

Five lectureships have been endowed which, through the publication of the lectures as delivered or in expanded form, have been productive of a considerable body of theological and missionary literature.

The Stone Lectureship

In 1871, Levi P. Stone, Esq., of Orange, N.J., a Director and also a Trustee of the Seminary, created the foundation for a lectureship which, in accordance with his direction, has been applied annually since 1883 to the payment of a lecturer, chosen by the Faculty of the Seminary, who delivers a course of lectures upon some topic kindred to theological studies. In the years 1903 and 1906 the endowment was increased through the generosity of Mr. Stone's sisters.

The Students' Lectureship on Missions

The Students' Course of Lectures on Foreign Missions had its inception in the minds of the undergraduates of the Seminary, and its endowment was secured largely by their efforts, liberally supported by the Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D. The lectureship was established in 1893. It is designed to provide for an annual course of lectures on some topic connected with Christian missions which shall be of practical importance for those looking forward to missionary service abroad, and at the same time introduce the whole Seminary community to the world mission of the church.

The Warfield Lectureship

In the will of Dr. Benjamin B. Warfield, former Professor of Systematic Theology in the Seminary, a fund was created to establish a lectureship in memory of Mrs. Warfield, to be called the Annie Kinkead Warfield Lectureship. In accordance with the terms of the trust, the lecturer on this foundation shall be approved by the Faculty of the Seminary, upon the nomination of the Charles Hodge Professor of Systematic Theology. Each lecturer shall belong to the Reformed tradition in theology, and "the subject of the lectures shall in all cases be some doctrine or doctrines of the Reformed System of Doctrine."

The Reverend Alexander Thompson Memorial Lecture

In honor of the Reverend Alexander Thompson of the class of 1909 there was established a lectureship dealing broadly with "some aspect of the Bible." The lecturer, selected by the Faculty of the Seminary, presents a single address during the month of March.

The Frederick Neumann Memorial Lecture

Established in 1983 by Dr. Edith Neumann in memory of her husband, this annual lecture is on a theme appropriate to the broad theological interests of Dr. Frederick Neumann (1899-1967), philosopher, biblical scholar, missionary, and pastor. The lecturer, selected by the Faculty of the Seminary, delivers a single address during one of the academic terms.

PUBLICATIONS

THE PRINCETON SEMINARY BULLETIN

THIS PUBLICATION, issued three times a year, contains the copy of addresses delivered to the Seminary community by visiting lecturers, papers of a specialized or scholarly nature by members of the Faculty, sermons, book reviews, and special program notices. THE BULLETIN is distributed free of charge among all former students and is sent to seminary libraries, church-related colleges, and on an exchange basis with many similar quarterlies. All inquiries should be addressed to the Editor, Princeton Seminary Bulletin, CN821, Princeton, N.J. 08542.

ALUMNI NEWS

Issued four times a year by the Publications Office in cooperation with the Office of Seminary Relations, Alumni News is distributed without charge to all former students of Princeton Seminary. The magazine features articles on campus events, the developing program of the Seminary, and the activities of graduates and members of the current Seminary community.

THEOLOGY TODAY

Published continuously since 1944, THEOLOGY TODAY has become one of the more widely circulated and influential religious quarterlies in the United States. The Trustees of the Seminary have assumed financial responsibility for the journal, although it is not an official organ of Princeton Theological Seminary. Building on the distinguished tradition of the older Princeton Review, THEOLOGY TODAY attempts to provide wide-ranging, reflective articles on contemporary trends in theology, church, and society. The Editorial Council includes men and women in fields ranging from journalism to teaching to parish ministry, and its circulation includes a large number of Protestants and Roman Catholics in the United States and more than seventy-five foreign countries. For information regarding the journal and subscriptions write THEOLOGY TODAY, Box 29, Princeton, N.J. 08542.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SHARE

A Life Income Gift

Princeton Seminary offers several types of gift plans which provide income for life to the donor, along with certain tax benefits, and also further the support of the Seminary. These plans are:

- The Gift Annuity or the Deferred Gift Annuity
- The Princeton Seminary Fund (a pooled income fund)
- The Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust
- The Charitable Remainder Unitrust

A Scholarship

Gifts up to $2,500 will provide partial to full scholarship aid for one year. A gift of $2,500 or more initiates an identified endowment fund providing income for a partial scholarship. A $50,000 gift creates a fully endowed scholarship fund, the income of which sustains an annual full scholarship.

A Bequest

An outright bequest may be made to the Seminary, or the residuary interest assigned, or the Seminary may be designated a contingent beneficiary.

A form of bequest is: I bequeath to Princeton Theological Seminary, located at Princeton, New Jersey, the sum of $_____ to be used for the general purposes of the Seminary, or as follows:

The corporate name of the Seminary is

"Princeton Theological Seminary"
at Princeton, New Jersey

For Further Information

Full information about any of these opportunities will be provided on request. Please write or call The Vice-President for Development, Princeton Theological Seminary, CN821, Princeton, New Jersey 08542. The telephone number is (609) 921-8306.
